

Dr. Paul Salvatore, Twice National President, Dies

Dr. Paul J. Salvatore, twice National President of Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity, and a Professor of Romance Languages at Brooklyn College, died on October 18, 1960, after an illness of several months. He would have been 65 years old the following week.

Dr. Salvatore had been elected National President on two separate occasions. He was the Fraternity's 2nd National President (1919-1921) and its tenth (1931-1933). As its second President, Dr. Salvatore regrouped the young Fraternity which had just managed to weather the first World War. His administration installed two new chapters, Gamma at Yale University (1919) and Delta at the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn (1920), and laid the groundwork for a truly national fraternity. As its tenth President, Dr. Salvatore was called upon to perform a similar duty, that of consolidation during the early depression years.

Dr. Salvatore received an A.B. cum laude from Columbia University in 1915 and a Ph.D. degree in 1935. He served successively as instructor, assistant and associate professor and professor of Romance Languages at Stevens Institute of Technology from 1916 to 1928. During that time he was also lecturer at the New York University Graduate School of Business Administration. From 1928 to 1932 he was supervisor of Romance Languages at Townsend Harris Hall High School in New York City.

He joined the Brooklyn College faculty in 1932 and headed the Romance Languages department from 1938 to 1947. In 1943 he directed a reorganization of modern foreign language teaching at Brooklyn College and introduced the first course in Russian.

He was a member of the educational policies committee of Fairleigh Dickinson University, the American Association of Teachers of Spanish, the American Association of Teachers of Italian, the Foreign Language Teachers Association and Phi Beta Kappa.

Dr. Paul J. Salvatore, Beta, (1895-1960)

He was the author of "Training of Teachers for Service in Secondary Schools" and "The Unpublished Plays of Favart". He tutored hundreds of high school and college students free of charge and during World War II wrote thousands of letters to his former pupils.

Many of Dr. Salvatore's friends and Fraternity Brothers were present to pay their last respects at the Sessa Funeral Home in Brooklyn. Fraternal Memorial Services were conducted by Third District Chaplain, Rev. Father Donald Licata. A solemn requiem mass was held at the Holy Innocents R.C. Church in Brooklyn.

Surviving are his widow, Angelina, a son, Joseph J.; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Barbieri; two brothers, Ettore and Victor, a sculptor, and four grandchildren. Mrs. Salvatore writes, "I have received mail from so many Chapters . . . it is so consoling to know that he had so many loyal friends, he was so proud of Alpha Phi Delta".

Our condolences to the Salvatore family on behalf of all the brothers.

Vice-President on Tour

National Vice-president Joseph A. Scioscia has been very busy making visitations to the various entities during the past few months. His visits have included several districts of the Fraternity.

The Vice-president's first stop was in Boston while assisting the new Central Office in its move to Pittsburgh. There he visited with Bro. Steve Rubino, 1st District Governor, whose revitalized Sigma Chapter at Boston University is now thriving.

Next stop was the 2nd District where he met with Bro. Ernest Colletti and several of the chapter and alumni entities. These included Mu Chapter, Cornell University, the Mohawk Alumni Club and the Buffalo Alumni Club.

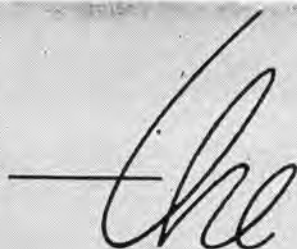

The next visitation was to New York and the 3rd District. There, with Third District Governor Gaspar LaSala and KLEOS Editor Stan Raffa, he attended the November Metropolitan District meeting. He was greeted by a large group representing all twelve District entities including alumni and undergraduates.

Five days later Scioscia was visiting Philadelphia and the 4th District. There he met with Mario De Giuseppe, newly elected 4th District Governor, the Philadelphia alumni and Beta Delta Chapter, Temple University.

Joe has also made special trips to Chi and Pi Chapters as well as participating in the Pittsburgh Alumni Club's regular meetings and assisting Central Office in establishing its new quarters.

Vice-president Joseph Scioscia is greeted by representatives from the chapters and alumni clubs of the Third District during his visitation. Also present are 3rd District Governor Gaspar LaSala and KLEOS Editor Stan Raffa.

Santangelo, LaBarbara Do It Again

Alfred E. Santangelo and Mario R. LaBarbara scored repeat performances by being re-elected to their respective public posts during the November elections. Santangelo retained his seat in the U.S. House of Representatives (18th Congressional District, NYC) while LaBarbara was re-elected Mayor of New Milford, New Jersey.

Bro. Santangelo, a Democrat, won handily over his Republican and Liberal opponents, scoring 47,246 votes as compared to 28,043 for the Republican candidate and 6,648 for the Liberal candidate. This is his third term as congressman; he served as New York State Senator for eight years before.

Bro. LaBarbara's victory set a record for New Milford; this is his sixth consecutive two-year term as Mayor of that New Jersey Borough. Winning by a plurality of 901 votes, LaBarbara, a Republican, garnered 4513 votes to 3612 for his Democratic opponent and swept the entire G.O.P. ticket into office with him. LaBarbara served a term as a local judge prior to his long tenure as Mayor.

APD wishes these fine public servants continued success.

Pittsburgh A. C. Honors Aurelio At 5-D Smoker

The Pittsburgh Alumni Club held its annual 5th District Smoker in honor of the undergraduates of the District on November 4, 1960. Fifty-one alumni and undergraduates attended. The smoker was held at the Mary Immaculate Church Hall, Pittsburgh, Penna.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the annual award presented to the outstanding alumnus of the Pittsburgh A. C. This year's award went to Sid Aurilio, Psi. The presentation was made by Dom Tarquino, last year's winner.

Presentation of two National awards were also made at the affair. Leo DiMonico, President of Beta Theta, College of Steubenville, accepted the Most Outstanding Chapter Award on behalf of his Chapter. Sam La Lama, Beta Omicron, Youngstown University, received the Outstanding Undergraduate Award in absentia.

The Pittsburgh Alumni Club's next big affair will be the Annual Metropolitan Dinner Dance which will be held Sunday, April 16, 1961 at the Horizon Room of the Greater Pittsburgh Airport. A fine dinner and top entertainment has been arranged. Price is $15 per couple.

Smoker, Dance Highlight of 3-D Activities

The Third District held its Annual District Smoker Friday evening, December 2, at St. Sebastian's Church Hall in New York City. A large group of undergraduates and alumni were on hand to watch the Pledges entertain in an effort to win the coveted District Pledge Cup for their Chapter.

This year's winner was Beta Pi Chapter, scoring its first win. Past winners include Delta, Beta Beta, Beta Eta (twice) and Beta Xi (once). The chapter to win the event three times will retain the cup permanently.

The District also held its annual Christmas Journal and Dance, Friday evening, December 23rd. This year the affair was held at the Essex House in NYC. A 3rd District Christmas Journal Award was initiated this year. The award went to Delta Chapter for its outstanding contribution to the 1960 Journal.

The District's next affair will be the Annual Communion Breakfast to be held Sunday, February 26, 1961. The Brothers will attend 9:00 A.M. mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral. Breakfast following the mass will be served at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. Tickets for the breakfast are $5.00 per person.

Publications Improve APD Communications

Communications between Chapters, Alumni Clubs, members, and Central Office have improved considerably during the past several months with the renewal of one, and the innovation of another, publication.

The more important one, in so far as the Chapters and Alumni Clubs are concerned, is the revival, with regularity, of the Chapter Letter. Issued every month by Central Office, its main purpose is to guide and inform the Chapters of their financial as well as administrative responsibilities during the fraternal year. The regularity of the "Letter" helps to establish a line of communication that the Chapters can depend on, thus providing for an efficient operation of both Chapter and Central Office. The "Letter" is supplemented by circulars to the entire membership regarding important announcements such as publication of the Directory, the 1961 Convention, etc.

Communications in the upper echelons of the Fraternity have also been enhanced with the innovation of "The Roundtable" by President Carlo M. Vannicola. The purpose of this informal but timely bulletin is to "supplement the executive meetings in an endeavor to face and solve problems as they present themselves." "The Roundtable" provides for a free exchange of information and ideas on a "no-holds-barred" basis. It is distributed to the members of the Executive Committee, the Trustees of the National Chapter House Foundation, the Chairmen of the diverse standing committees, the past National Officers and others who may wish to receive them periodically.

Along with the KLEOS, these publications represent an effective line of communication with the membership.

Beta Lambda Sets '61 Goals High

Beta Lambda Chapter at St. Francis College, Loretto, Pennsylvania, started its new school year on September 13. At that time the new officers officially took over their various duties.

Elected to lead the Chapter through the 1960-61 school year were Vince Infinito, President, Mike Maddick, Vice-president, Mike Casa, Secretary, and Mike Stafford, Treasurer.

During the first meeting of the new semester, the Brothers decided that the Chapter had to advance in three basic directions. First, a closer bond had to be formed between the Chapter and the school. This was accomplished by a systematic schedule by which members of the faculty are invited to dinner at the Fraternity House. Beta Lambda has also continued its traditional First Friday Mass and Communion and has extended this to include the first Sunday of the month as Communion Sunday. The Chapter was also instrumental in organizing an IFC Communion Breakfast.

In another direction it was decided that the social calendar should be pepped up. Nat D'Amico was chosen Social Chairman and promptly organized a costumed social with T.V. characters as the theme. Due to its tremendous success, another costume social was organized for Hallowe'en and from the size of the attendance it was evident that this was quite a success too.

The height of Beta Lambda's social success was the Chapter's traditional Rose Ball, held November, 1960. Fraternity notables present at the affair included 5th District Governor and Mrs. Julius Zangrille, Faculty Advisor Dr. and Mrs. Zanzuecki, and faculty member and Mrs. A. Martina.

The final direction of improvement was directed toward rushing. A rushing committee was formed which organized an Open House affair scheduled for Parent's Weekend. The house was well decorated and refreshments were provided for the large number of students and parents present. Dinner invitations have been sent out each week to prospective pledges.

Meanwhile, two new Brothers were being initiated on November 18. They are Keirin Maddock and S. Richard Ombre. A pledge party culminated the evening. The Chapter unfortunately, also lost one of its officers: Mike Casa, Secretary, who was forced to leave school due to a prolonged illness incurred by his father.

The Chapter keeps quite active on the campus. Two of its members are active in the Intrafraternity Council; Vince Infinito is Council Vice-President and Mike Maddock is Sports Chairman. The Chapter also placed five men on the IFC All-Star Football roster including Norm Svarrer, end, who made the second team, and Vince Infinito, Mike Maddock, Marty Yannario and Mike Stafford who received honorable mention. In IFC Bowling, Richie Chiafalo has high game for the league while Mike Maddock has top individual series. Basketball will begin in January and the teams chances for the title rests on the shoulders of Kev Maddock who is a definite All-Star prospect. Rounding out the team will be Mike Maddock, honorable mention in 1959, Ron Lucerne, Bill Shea, and Mike Stafford. Varsity team member Brother Frank Libonati will coach the team.

Beta Theta Kicks Off Busy Year

HOLIDAY SOCIALS

Beta Theta held its annual Hallowe'en Dance on November 30, 1960. The costume affair is always enjoyed by alumni as well as undergraduates. Prizes were given for the best dressed couple and most original costumes. Entertainment was provided by Brother George Phillips and his electric guitar accompanied by a singing group of Brothers, Tripodi, Domanico, and Batista.

The Chapter followed with its annual Thanksgiving Party on November 27. The affair was handled by Brother Joseph Tripodi and his social committee. The entertainment was provided by the attending Brothers who had to go through stunts as their consequence for answering questions wrongs. The evening was a great success bringing to an end the Thanksgiving vacation.

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS

Beta Theta Chapter won the interfraternity football championship at the College of Steubenville by breaking a forty-seven straight win record held by Delta Sigma in a rough and tumble game that ended in a 13 to 12 victory for APD. The win enabled Beta Theta to take over the interfraternity trophy. Beta Theta also placed second in the college intermural football program with a record of four wins, one tie and one loss. Spearheading the team to victory were co-captains "Glue Fingers" Di Loreto and "Crazy Legs" Batista. The team was made up of Brothers "The Rock" Tripodi II, "Stonewall" Tripodi III, "Flash" Diomed, "Bull" Gullo, "Tiger" Macio, "Twinkle Toes" Guida, "Ramrod" Domanico, "Terrible" Leeper and "Old Man" Di Paolo.

History Lesson No. 6: The 1924 Convention

The small creases visible in the above photo is not our printer's fault. It's just the photo of the 1924 Convention showing its age. Actually, it looks better than the original. Which is all to say that regardless of how poor a condition you may think your old Convention photo is in, we can still do pretty well with it. So please search your attic; we have coverage for the 1924, 1925, 1927, 1931, 1933, 1934 and 1938 Conventions but need the rest.

The 1924 National Convention was held at the Statler Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio, December 27th, 28th and 29th. Officially, it was the Seventh National Convention.

Alpha Phi Delta was definitely not in good shape that year. Having expanded so much in so short a time (we were already 16 chapters), the Fraternity had fallen victim to over-expansion. For years, all energy had been expended in obtaining new chapters. Once installed, the chapters were left to their own resources. There was no advice, no attention, no supervision to guide the infant chapters. The officers did not even possess a list of the members of the Fraternity nor did they know how many they were.

The Fraternity had sixteen chapters. Instead of it being one unit composed of sixteen parts, there were sixteen separate and distinct units without any bond between them. Internal dissention was prevalent in many chapters; chapter feeling was rife and fraternal spirit was completely lacking.

Thus, we find the Fraternity, at the end of 1924, practically demoralized and disintegrated, and insolvent by over $1200.

One might have thought that the 1924 Convention might be one of the last for Alpha Phi Delta. In fact only three of the officers were present: The Grand Consul, the Grand Tribune, and the Corresponding Tribune; and four of the sixteen chapters were without representation.

And yet, such a splendid convention was prepared by the Brothers of Cleveland that in the wonderful entertainment and hospitality that was provided, all grievances were forgotten and fraternal spirit abounded.

Such was the feeling of fraternalism engendered by the entertainments of the convention committee that the delegates attacked their problems in a serious and sensible manner. With a spirit of good fellowship evolved five very constructive pieces of legislation.

It was decided that henceforth only graduate brothers would be eligible for the offices of Grand Consul and Grand Quaestor.

Realizing the need of knowing the extent and composition of the Fraternity, the advisability of a directory was agreed upon and Benjamin Marsicano of Theta was appointed to compile one.

In order to promote contact between the chapters and the Grand Council, the chapters were divided into three territorial divisions with a Grand Pro-Consul for each section.

The Office of Corresponding Tribune was eliminated and the Grand Tribune was made appointive.

Finally, definite steps were taken to aid chapters in the collection of arrear accounts.

At the election of officers, John Pasta of Beta was unanimously elected Grand Consul; Joseph B. Larca of Kappa, D. James Rizzo of Alpha and Thomas Rossi of Nu were elected first, second, and third Grand Pro-Consul respectively; Enrico G. Coscia of Nu was elected Grand Quaestor; Joseph Nicolini of Theta, Grand Historian and Milo I. Tomanovich of Iota, Grand Delegate. Peter Sammartino was appointed Grand Tribune.

The convention was brought to a happy, joyful and successful conclusion with a magnificent Ball in the true spirit of the year-end season.

Attention Alumni!

Three years ago we scrapped our magazine format to bring you a new KLEOS. We did this with the frank intention of reaching those Brothers who, for various reasons had lost contact with the Fraternity over the years. We want to keep you informed of what progress your Fraternity is making.

We would like to continue this service, but your Fraternity has many other expenses; therefore, you must do your part too. If you have not already done so, become an alumnus in good standing now by sending your five dollars to Central Office. The insert below is provided for your convenience. Remember,

LIAC Maintains Interesting and Varied Program

The Long Island Alumni Club continued to maintain a strong active program this fall. On October 22, the Club held its annual Hallowe'en Party; a gala affair which included food, drink and recorded music for the very minimum price of $1.00 per ticket. This was followed by a Christmas Party held at Carmin's Roslyn Cafe.

The Club's meetings continue to evoke much interest. Ladies are invited to attend the informal phase of every other meeting at which time a talk is given by a guest speaker. A splendid talk at one meeting was given by Bro. Joseph Giammo. The subject, Divorces, Annulment and Separation, created a good deal of interest, all of it in good fun. A former United Nations Delegate from Equador was guest speaker at another dinner meeting.

The Club has a Theatre Party planned for March.

LIAC meet the first Friday of every month at Carmin's Roslyn Cafe, in Roslyn, Long Island.

Beta Pi Initiates Eighteen

Eight New Bros. Greeted at Psi

Psi Chapter's Fall Pledge Program was brought to a successful conclusion on November 30 when the chapter initiated 8 new Brothers into Alpha Phi Delta. After six weeks of indoctrination, the former pledges solemnly accepted their responsibilities as Brothers in the bond of APD.

The new members are William Errico, Charles Liberetor, Peter Romano, Max Vassonelli, Frank Imperatore, Thomas Balestreire, Peter Sammarino and Richard Calabro. Psi's roll now numbers 47 active Brothers.

Among those present at the formal initiation ceremonies were Joseph Scioscia, National Vice-president, Adam DiVincenzo, National Secretary, Joseph Scotti, National Treasurer, Jules Zangrille, 5th District Governor and Joseph Creston, Pittsburgh Alumni Club President.

Beta Pi Chapter, St. John's University, held initiations the weekend of December 2, 1960. The event was climaxed by a big dinner at Riccardo's Restaurant in Astoria, L.I., where eighteen Brothers were given the Fraternity oath before a large crowd of Brothers and guests.

The exercises were an especially happy one for Pledge Committee chairman Bob Trovato and Elections Committee Chairman Jack Caratozzolo. Two nights before, the pledges had brought honor to their chapter by winning the 3rd District Pledge Cup with their top performance at the District Smoker.

Guests at the Dinner included Father Fischer of St. John's University, spiritual advisor and chaplain for Beta Pi, Bro. Anthony Sarno, Dean of Men at St. John's, Gaspar LaSala, 3rd District Governor, Frank Cavallaro, PNP, Stan Raffa, KLEOS Editor, and Mike Capobianco, Delta, faculty advisor for the Chapter. Congratulations received included those of Central Office, who at the last minute, were unable to attend.

— From Here and There —

PSI PICKS "SWEETHEART"

Girls react in different ways when told that they have been selected sweetheart of a fraternity.

Felicia Goscinski, newly elected sweetheart of Psi Chapter, Duquesne University, said "You're kidding", turned white, sat down, cried, and threw her arms around Brother Tony Ragazzo.

"I'm very proud and thrilled to be sweetheart," she said. "I'll try my best to be worthy of the honor that the Alpha Phi's have given me."

Miss Felicia Goscinski

Pinned to Brother Tony since June, Miss Goscinski has a B average to go with her brown hair and pretty blue eyes. She is a graduate of Scott Twp. High School where she received straight A's and was chosen valedictorian of her class. While in high school, she began working at Allegheny General Hospital and is now secretary for the director of the volunteer workers there.

"I work there full time during the summer," she explained, "and about 10 to 12 hours a week while I'm attending Duquesne."

A brother, Ray, a 1959 graduate of Duquesne, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Feliz Goscinski of 110 Locust St., Carnegie, Pa., make up the rest of the family.

Along with her student teaching at South High School Felicia belongs to the Alpha Phi Omicron sorority. She also sews in her spare time and helps her mother with the housework.

"I plan to teach business education and get married after graduation," she said with a big smile.

One change in her schedule is evident at present—she spends half her time with her sorority, and the other half with the Brothers of Psi.

FOILED BY DELTA MAN

A bank robber's fast exit and the quick thinking of an APD man proved the robber's undoing last January 10th. The robber had quietly convinced the teller in the Bethpage, L. I. branch of the Hempstead Bank to turn over $600. When he bolted out of the bank, however, Ken Bube, Delta, who was just passing by, jotted down the license number of the thief's 1954 yellow sedan and turned it over to the cops. Result: the would-be robber was pinched and Ken received a pat on the back.

BABY TALK

Congratulations to Bro. and Mrs. Nick Albrano of the Pittsburgh Alumni Club for their new addition, a baby boy . . . to Bro. and Mrs. John Palermo, past president of Beta Pi, for their blessed event, a 7 lb.-5 oz. baby boy . . . to Bro. and Mrs. Dick Spozino of the Westchester Alumni Club, a new baby girl . . . to Bro. and Mrs. Vinnie Troiano, of the Long Island Alumni Club, a cute baby girl, Kathy . . . and to Steve Cocumelli, 6th District Governor, who became a grandfather recently, the youngest in APD (?)

SALUTE!

Bro. Cadet Anthony J. Zonna, Beta Rho, received six weeks of training at the Army Reserve Officer Training Corps summer camp at Fort George G. Meade, Md. this past summer. Zonna was one of five cadets from Gannon College who received practical experience and instruction in tactical, technical and administrative subjects with special emphasis being placed on the duties of a second lieutenant. A 1957 graduate of Strong Vincent High School, Erie, Pa., Cadet Zonna, 20, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Zonna, 1234 Brown Ave.

Bro. Army Pvt. Ralph J. Tucci, Jr., Psi, completed the final phase of six months active military training July 15 under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Bliss, Texas. During this final phase, Bro. Tucci received training in the duties of a missile crewman. A 1959 graduate of Duquesne University, Tucci lives with his parents at 137 Eighth St., McKeesport, Penna.

GET WELL FAST!

Get well wishes to Ralph Calate, Theta Beta, all smashed up in an unfortunate accident with a car; in Perth Amboy Hospital, Perth Amboy, New Jersey . . . also to Jack Conte, Delta, who suffered a kidney injury in a football game; in Kings Highway Hospital, Brooklyn. Many thanks to the Delta and Eta boys who showed their true fraternal kinship by donating blood for Jack.

OBITUARY

Our deepest regrets to Bro. Victor Ciancetta and family on the death of his father, Carlo Ciancetta, December 14, 1960. Vic is past Sixth District Governor.

The Rains Came But Teamwork Binds Psi's Festival Theatre Together

Psi performers at their outdoor theatre which they built for Duquesne University's 1960 Carnival Festival

Duquesne University's 1960 Carnival Festival was the scene of another first for Alpha Phi Delta, Psi Chapter.

To eliminate the usual cost of a tent, Psi constructed a large theatre, gaily painted in gold and white, complete with marquee. A concrete sidewalk featuring such notable impressions as the shoe (size 13) of Sophia Loren; the hands of Eliot Ness; the paws of Rin Tin Tin; the mike of Frank Sinatra; etc. was an added feature which drew many favorable comments.

There was only one drawback to Psi's money-saving, space-saving, answer to the conventional tents on the lot; they couldn't find a tarpaulin large and cheap enough to cover the top. Gambling against rain, they presented the shows nightly under the stars to packed houses.

Things went fine for the first night, but during the last show on the second night, the rain came and the swift winds began to blow. On the morning after, small clusters of Alpha Phi's shook their heads in silent sorrow. It seemed that all the many hours of hard and tedious work had gone in vain, for the theatre was a shambles.

Then, on impulse, one Brother picked up a hammer and began "rebuilding." The lot suddenly came alive with the sound of stout-hearted men at work. Psi's sister sorority and partner in Carnival, Sigma Phi Delta, worked right along with the chapter. Moving at a feverish pace, reconstruction continued through the afternoon and was completed at 8:00 P.M. in time for the first show.

This great example of teamwork did not pass unnoticed. Groups of students from other organizations stood open-mouthed as the structure was put back together from the ground up.

Reward for this venture came by way of three routes, namely a substantial profit, a third place prize, and most of all, public recognition of the teamwork that makes Psi a top-ranked organization at Duquesne.

Brother Walt Sodie was chairman of the production and Brother Tom Coleman was chairman of construction, both of whom deserve great admiration and gratitude for their tireless efforts.

Psi is looking forward to first place in the Carnival next year.

The outdoor theatre after the storm. Hard work put the structure back together again, however, and the Chapter still took third prize.

Directory to Be Ready by End of June

Central Office has announced that it will publish a new directory this year. Form letters to all Brothers were mailed with the last issue of the KLEOS. The information requested included address, occupation, business address, college and Chapter. A minimum of $2.00 to help defray the cost of printing was also requested.

The last Directory was issued back in 1952. Since then, nearly 2000 new Brothers have been inducted into Alpha Phi Delta and numerous change of addresses have been recorded.

Central Office expects that the new Directory will be ready for distribution by the end of June.
