

Convention Dedicated To Past National Presidents

House Purchased By NHF For Beta Xi At Newark CE

The National House Fund Trustees at their regular semi-annual meeting held on September 4, 1961, approved the purchase of a House for Beta Xi Chapter, Newark College of Engineering. The house, which is located at 15 Burnett Street, Newark, New Jersey, and a short distance from the school, will be ready for occupancy by the Chapter on October 1st. This is the third house purchased by the Fraternity, the other two being the Pi House, University of West Virginia, and the Beta Lambda House, at St. Francis College, Loretto, Pennsylvania.

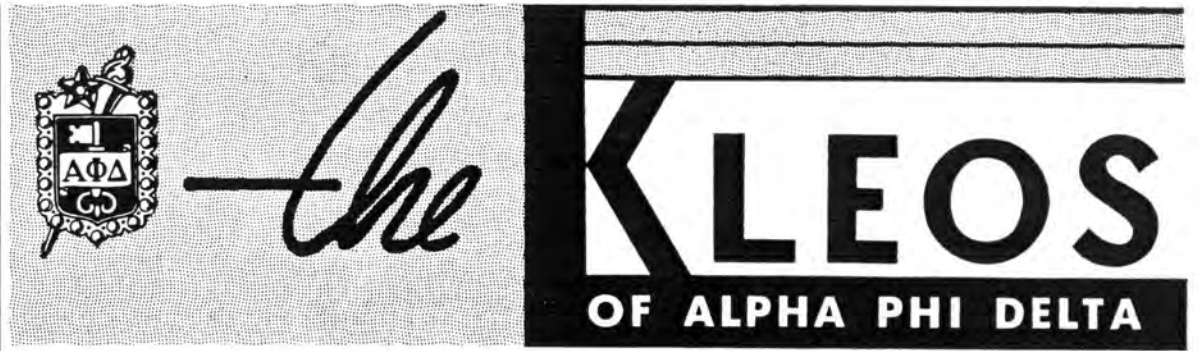

Undergraduates of Beta Xi first approached the trustees at their spring meeting last year in Philadelphia. At that time, the Chapter presented detailed information concerning the costs of upkeep, heating, electricity and taxes. Trustee Chairman Joseph DeGuglielmo and National President Carlo M. Vannicola made a check of the property and arrangements were made with the undergraduates relative to conditions for its purchase. These conditions included raising a portion of the funds prior to purchase both for acquisition costs and furnishing the house. The funds were raised through the efforts of Beta Xi alumni led by Americo Faruolo.

The house is a three story brick building which was formerly used as a rooming house by the owner. As a consequence most of the rooms have their own sinks. There are three baths and sound plumbing. The interior decoration of the house is immaculate.

All trustees were present at its Convention meeting. They are: Chairman Joseph DeGuglielmo, Secretary-Treasurer Dr. Domenic Macedonia, Dr. Horace Goffredo, and Dr. Walter Primarano, permanent members, Central Office represented by National Secretary Adam DiVincenzo and National Treasurer Joseph V. Scotti, Frank Paladino whose term expires in 1963, and Julius Zangrille, 5th District Governor, whose term expires in 1962. The Grand Council in session later elected 2nd District Governor Earnest Coletti to a 3 year term expiring in 1964.

It took at least 30 minutes to take the picture below. It seems that the Lake Tarleton Club photographer was having trouble with his flash so it was up to PNP Frank Cavallaro (ADP's unofficial photographer) to do the honors. Thanks to Bro. Frank, we have a group photo of the Convention.

VANNICOLA, SCIOSCIA RE-ELECTED AT 41st NATIONAL CONVENTION; EXPANSION KEYNOTE OF LAKE TARLETON MEETING

Delegates representing the Chapters and Alumni Clubs of the seven districts of Alpha Phi Delta unanimously re-elected Carlo M. Vannicola, President, and Joseph A. Scioscia, Vice-president, for the next fraternal year, at the 41st National Convention held at the Lake Tarleton Club, Pike, New Hampshire, over Labor Day week. Traditionally, the elections were made on the last day of the business sessions of the convention which was attended by a large group of Alpha Phi Delta men and their families. This convention, the 11th to be held at a resort, was one of the finest in the way of entertainment, food, and hospitality.

Expansion, its ways and means, was the keynote of the Convention, with much of the discussion and proposed legislation centered about this vital subject. On the progress side, Eastern District Expansion Committee Chairman Frank Cavallaro presented the petition of a group at St. Francis College in Brooklyn, New York, designated as the Beta Sigma Colony. The Executive Committee with the later approval of the Grand Council, thereupon authorized the chairman to proceed with the establishment of the Beta Sigma Chapter at St. Francis College provided that the colony meets the requirements of the Constitution.

On the negative side, the Eastern Chairman noted that the name of Beta Sigma Colony, originally designated to the New York Institute of Technology, had to be recalled because of diminished interest. It was also announced by the National President that the reactivation of Sigma Chapter at Boston College had been temporarily stalled by school authorities because of improper reactivation procedures. Assurance was given however, that as soon as school regulations were met, a strong chapter would result. Because of the non-existence of an undergraduate Chapter in the 1st District which was comprised of the latent Sigma Chapter and the Boston Alumni Club, the First District was declared temporarily inactive.

Re-elected

CARLO M. VANNICOLA
National President

JOSEPH A. SCIOSCIA
National Vice-President

The Membership Committee, Trent Chirochi, Chairman, in its report made several recommendations intend to stimulate the expansion program. Resolutions passed in this respect included the establishment of a permanent Membership Committee, and the allocation of one thousand dollars for the "good and welfare of Alpha Phi Delta" to be used at the discretion of Central Office basically for the purpose of expansion.

The Legislative Committee, Frank Cavallaro, Chairman, introduced legislation sponsored by the Western Expansion Committee Chairman Frank Costanzo to amend Article 9, Section 9 of the Constitution to include that each entity of the Fraternity elect a member to the Expansion Committee to report to the area chairman. This legislation cannot be acted upon until 1962 however, since all Constitutional amendments must be received prior to April 1 and circularized by May 1 before the subsequent Convention. The Legislative Committee reminded all delegates that Legislation presented for action next year must be received in accordance to these Constitutional provisions.

In action intended to assure the presence of all entity delegates, particularly undergraduates, at National Conventions, a committee was established to investigate ways and means of providing and/or assuring complete reimbursements for Convention expenses. Julius Zangrille, 5th District

PNP'S AT CONVENTION

APD's 41st National Convention was dedicated to all past National Presidents of the Fraternity and one of the pleasures of this year's reunion was the attendance of ten of the Brothers who have led the Fraternity over the years. A special program was arranged by the Convention committee in honor of the PNP's; this included the presentation of a plaque on the evening of the Grand Ball to all those present and in absentia.

Guest speaker welcoming the Past National Presidents was Dr. D. A. Macedonia, PNP 1946-48 who had also been delegated by the Convention Committee to contact all past National Presidents urging them to attend the Convention this year. The response to Dr. Macedonia's invitation was heartening not only from those who were able to attend but those who could not. Typical of the replies were the following:

Frank M. Travaline, Jr., PNP 1937-39: "There is serious doubt in my mind that I will be able to attend . . . I have fond recollections of past conventions and of the last 'reunion' we had in Doc Nardone's in Philadelphia, February last. (Ed. note: Executive Committee Meeting, 1961). It did my heart good to see the old timers so relaxed and playful . . . My spirit will be with you all . . ."

Joseph Alaimo, PNP 1950-52: "I am delighted to hear that an effort is being made to encourage the attendance of all the Past National Presidents . . . I have long felt that the Fraternity should take positive steps to rekindle the interest in the Fraternity of the men who in the past had the greatest interest in it . . . You can count on me and my family to be present."

Frank Cavallaro, PNP 1954-56: "I am happy to note that the National Fraternity still remembers the work done by its past National Presidents . . . I have been a steady conventioneer for some time now. God be willing, I shall again enjoy the pleasures of meeting with my Fraternity Brothers at the Convention . . ."

Dr. Charles J. Barone, PNP 1927-29: "I am sorry I will be unable to attend as it is too close to my departure for a world tour in September. With all good wishes for a very successful and enjoyable convention . . ."

Dr. Samuel Varco, PNP 1948-50: ". . . Wouldn't miss it for the world . . . am looking forward to seeing you there."

Frank Costanzo, PNP 1956-58: "You know I will be there if I can . . . (but) this makes five weeks I've been away . . . Wish you a successful PNP meeting . . ." (Ed note: Bro. Frank is a Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserves)

Joseph M. D'Urso, PNP 1958-60: "It seems unlikely that I will attend this year. My boy, Michael will enter the Admiral Farragut Naval Academy (St. Petersburg, Florida) and my wife and I are driving down . . . My deepest regards to all the Brothers. I am sure Ernest Coletti will rejoice as he will now have a clear road to the golf championship."

Louis J. Rinaldi, PNP 1923-24: "It is exceedingly encouraging that such effort is being made to try to have as many Past National Presidents attend this convention. I would be most happy to attend and renew old acquaintances of some thirty-five years or more standing, but I regret to say that I will be unable to attend . . . My good wishes and a very hearty hello to all the Brothers, and especially, the Past National Presidents who will attend . . ."

Gerard Chirichigno, PNP 1933-35: ". . . Trying to figure out how I can manage to get away . . . and from the looks of things I may not be able to attend . . . I had planned all along to make this convention after an absence of 8 years. I assure you that if I am able at all, I will make every effort to be there at least part of the time . . ."

Benjamin Marsicano, PNP 1925-27: "For health reasons I know that it will be impossible for me to travel to and from the convention . . . regretfully, I cannot attend."

Victor Leanza, PNP 1939-41: ". . . I shall look forward to seeing you and all the boys there . . ."

Judge Robert V. Santangelo, PNP 1921-22: "Juliette and I shall attend . . ." (Ed. note: Bro. Bob was Dean of the PNP's in attendance.)

Adam DiVincenzo, PNP 1952-54: "God willing you know I'll be at the Convention . . ." (Ed. note: Bro. Adam is National Secretary and wouldn't miss it even if he wasn't).

Joseph A. DeGuglielmo, PNP 1941-43: ". . . Inasmuch as I am running the Convention, I shall be there . . ." (Ed. Note: Like Bro Adam, Joe wouldn't miss it either.)

Attending the Convention were Judge Robert V. Santangelo, Beta, 1920-21; John Pasta, Beta, 1924-25; Victor S. Leanza, Xi, 1939-41; Joseph A. DeGuglielmo Upsilon, 1941-43; Dr. Felix Ottaviano, Omega, 1943-46; Dr. D. A. Macedonia, Kappa, 1946-48; Dr. Samuel A. Varco, Epsilon, 1948-50; Joseph Alaimo, Mu, 1950-52; Adam DiVincenzo, Psi, 1952-54; and Frank Cavallaro, Theta Beta, 1954-56.

Governor was appointed Chairman of this committee.

A resolution was also introduced and passed relative to the Life Subscribers Fund. The resolution specifies that if within two months, Central Office cannot determine the original trust agreement established for subscription, that a committee be appointed to work up a new trust agreement and that this be presented at the next Executive Committee meeting.

In other action, National President Carlo M. Vannicola appointed John Fiore, Mu as 7th District Governor to succeed Victor Quilice. The Grand Council elected Earnest Coletti, 2nd District Governor to the 2 year term of trustee of the National House Fund.

Central Office also announced that the Directory is in print and will be distributed in December or January. The Directory will consist of two sections. The first will be more detailed and will carry the name, business address, occupation and phone number for all those Brothers who sent the minimum contribution of $2.00 to defray expense of printing the Directory. The second part will list only the name and home address of all Brothers in Central Office's files, alphabetical and according to state and city.

On the social side, the Convention was another impressive one. The crowd was about the same size as last year. A much larger gathering could have been realized except for the fact that schools in certain sections of the country started even earlier than usual thus prevented many Brothers with small children from attending. Food this year was excellent ranging from a Lobster Dinner to a Hawaiian Luau to a delicious steak dinner for the Grand Banquet. Masqueraders this year were no less inventive; costumes ranged from Daisey Maes to shah's to mandarins. Past National President Joseph DeGuglielmo was general Convention Chairman. Frank Cavallaro was social chairman for the convention.

Pre-convention social activities this year, and totally unarranged were nevertheless unique. Because of the holiday crowd at the Lake Tarleton, early arrivals were accommodated at a nearby small resort area, "Forty Acres." This resort had officially closed down with only the cook and manager available for service. Consequently, the early arrivals had the run of the place. On the last evening, when even the cook had left, several of the wives led by Mrs. Robert Santangelo, Mrs. John Pasta and Mrs. Pete Perrone to name a few, cooked a delicious dinner of spaghetti and clams complete with antipasto, desert and coffee to accommodate 40 people. It was a wonderful display of fraternal kinship, the kind always associated with Alpha Phi Delta conventions.

Domenic T. Colarosa, Psi

Domenic T. Colarosa, Psi, Pittsburgh Alumni Club, has been appointed new Assistant Chief of the Department of the Treasury representing 26 counties in Pennsylvania. Governor David L. From his office in the State Office Building, Brother Colarosa directs the activities of 35 persons in the Pittsburgh office and 15 more in the counties. Also under his jurisdiction is the Bureau of Investigation. The office handles anywhere from one-half to three-quarters of a million dollars daily.

APD Mourns . . .

James F. Palumbo, Rho

It is with deep regret that we note the death of one of our active Brothers, James F. Palumbo, Rho. Bro. Palumbo passed away on Monday, September 25, 1961.

Born May 30, 1901 in Frusolene Campobasso, Italy, Bro. James attended the University of Pennsylvania and graduated from Carnegie Tech in 1927 where he studied architecture.

For the past 22 years he was president of his own company, "Cloverleaf Trailer Sales, Co.," selling mobile homes and building mobile home courts.

His survivors include his beloved wife, Anna, a daughter Mrs. Marjorie Miller, a son James F., Jr., and six grandchildren. Mrs. Palumbo resides at 36 Ott Drive, Pittsburgh 36, Penna.

Ronald Sacco, MU

The Brothers and recent alumni of Mu Chapter at Cornell University were shocked and deeply saddened by the death of one of their most popular Brothers, Ronald Sacco of Hamilton, New York. On Saturday, June 22, the car in which Ron was a passenger skidded and crashed into a parked bus killing Ron and 2 friends.

Ron was to enter his Senior year in Cornell's School of Agriculture this fall and thus fulfill his life-long ambition of graduation next June.

The Brothers of Mu have always considered Ron's actions an outstanding example of what Fraternalism should be and mean, for Ron had that rare quality of perfectly combining wisdom, humility, loyalty and sincerity in everything that he ever did. He never failed to sacrifice time or energy from his diligent studies to help a Brother, pledge, or friend in need.

Our condolences to the Palumbo and Sacco families in their bereavement.

Alumni and Ladies Stir APD Activities In Mohawk Valley

The Mohawk Valley Alumni Association and its distaff counterparts, the Ladies Auxiliary, have been maintaining a very active pace in promoting the spirit of APD in the Utica, New York, area.

On May 14, the alumni held their annual Men's Communion Breakfast attending Holy Mass at St. Anthony's Church in Utica. Breakfast followed at the Morris Restaurant. This year, the undergraduates of Beta Iota were invited to join the alumni and a large increase in participation was the result.

The Association also actively supported the Boys of Italy benefit which was held in Utica and featured Tony Bennett. The Association bought ads and sold tickets. The Clubs participation in the benefit was the result of the efforts of Ernie Coletti, 2nd District Governor, who did a great majority of the work in making the benefit a success.

The Brother's "better Half," the Ladies Auxiliary also maintained a busy schedule. The girls held their annual Communion Breakfast, attending Mass at the Blessed Sacrament Church and then gathering at the Lincoln Farms Restaurant for breakfast. In addition, they held several social events which included a "Couples Night Out" dinner-dance with their husbands at the Beeches in Rome, New York, and a picnic meeting late in June. Officers of the Ladies Auxiliary are Nette Mammone, President; Belle Capacelatro, Vice-president; Mary Camerata, Recording Secretary; Marie Cellini, Corresponding Secretary; Nancy Calacicco, Treasurer; Mary Lou Ricci, Historian; and Mary Fallati, Sergeant-at-arms.

Last Spring, the alumni club initiated an Alumni News bulletin, a well-composed two-pager, the purpose of which is to keep local alumni informed of local and national activities. Editor of the monthly publication is Malio Cardarelli. The KLEOS, which has always encouraged local publications as another source of maintaining close liaison with the membership, congratulates the club and its editor and urges them to continue this activity.

Bklyn Alumni Honor Prof. Canavaciol, Delta, 41 Years at Poly Institute

BAC alumni and Delta undergraduates at the Clubs 1st Annual Honorary Dinner

The Brooklyn Alumni Club held its 1st Annual Honorary Dinner on June 7, 1961 at Farar's Restaurant in Brooklyn. The dinner was held in honor of the four graduating Brothers of Delta Chapter and for Bro. Frank E. Canavaciol, Delta, Professor of Electrical Engineering at the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn who retired after 41 years of teaching at the Institute.

Louis Spadacini, President of Delta Chapter presented Professor Canavaciol a plaque in recognition of his 41 years of devoted service to the school and education. Frank Cavallaro, PNP, President of the Brooklyn Alumni Club presented him with a life-long membership in the Club. One year dues-free membership was also presented to the new graduates.

In accepting the plaque, Professor Canavaciol recalled the various highlights of his life. The son of a Brooklyn grocer, Professor Canavaciol received his degree at the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn. He became Assistant Professor in 1924, Associate Professor in 1938 and full Professor in 1948. Electrical engineering being a rather new field right after World War I, Professor Canavaciol watched it develop into the tremendous field it is today. During the course of its development he met many of its brilliant leaders: Steinmetz, Marconi, DeForrest. But the Professor's most vivid recollections were those of a nun who, while he was living with his aunt on Mott Street, befriended him and remained his friend for many years. She later became the first American Saint, Mother Cabrini.

Professor Canavaciol was inducted into Delta Chapter in 1920 while he was already teaching at the Institute. He recalls with some amusement the unusual circumstances of pledging while some of the Brothers were his students. During his 41 years at the Polytechnic he taught many Delta men. Some of the oldest and youngest students attended the dinner to do him honor.

Chairman for the affair was Ralph Alliegro, Vice-president of the Brooklyn Alumni Club, who did a fine job of the arrangements.

President's Visitation

On May 27, 1961, the Third District was honored by a visit from National President Carlo M. Vannicola. Brother Vannicola was welcomed at the home of Bro. and Mrs. Frank Cavallaro, PNP, where a party was held in his honor. Attending were several Brothers representing the undergraduate chapters and alumni clubs in the District.

Steubenville Alumni Holds Summer Socials

The Steubenville Alumni Club has celebrated another successful year of APD activities. Approximately 20 alumni Brothers attended the Beta Theta undergraduate dinner dance held June 14 at the Fort Steuben Hotel. This elaborate affair has been given each year by the Steubenville undergrads for the Alumni in the area.

The alumni social calendar started with a stag which was held June 22 at the Macedonia Estate. Brother Dr. Tosi was chairman of the highly successful affair which was attended by 39 Brothers. They enjoyed themselves at volleyball, basketball, bocce, and Brother Macey even turned over his riding stables to the Brothers. A second stag had Chet Tarquinio as chairman and chef, ably assisted by serafin DeAngelis; between them they set up a wonderful barbecued steak dinner. All Brothers went home with a full stomach as the chef's had promised.

Highlight of the SAC social season is the annual Family picnic. This year that old standby Brother Hugo Alexander was chairman of the affair. Brother Alexander did a fine job and approximately 100 Brothers and their families were in attendance.

The final stag was again held at Brother Macedonia's and was handled by the Club's Charter members with Brother Steve Cocumelli, 6th District Governor, as chairman. The "old guard" showed that they could still put on an outstanding affair as the Brothers enjoyed themselves with steak, tripe, pasta and corn, just to mention a few of the delicacies. Volleyball was the main feature of the program with Brother Cocumelli's team outpointing Brother Joe Quotrone's fireballs, 26 to 24.

Party, Picnic, Liven LIAC Summer

LIAC members and their wives at a party tendered by Bro. and Mrs. John Pasta, PNP.

There is no summer layoff for the Long Island Alumni Club who once again maintained an active social summer program. The Brothers and their wives first got together on June 24th at a smorgasbord and cocktail party thrown by Bro. and Mrs. John Pasta, Past National President. Twenty couples were present to enjoy the sumptuous repast and cooling cocktails. Present for the affair were State Supreme Court Justice Bro. and Mrs. Frank Gulotta.

On August 6th, Brothers and their families got together at the Fifth Annual Picnic held at Pond Acre, residence of Brother Anthony Nitolli at Cold Spring Harbor. Approximately 30 people enjoyed the brookside barbecue where the order of the day ranged from hot dogs to veal parmigiana.

The Club has already set us its program for 1961-62. The Brothers meet the first Friday of every month at Carmine's Roslyn Cafe, 235 Roslyn Road. As is customary, wives are invited for collation after the business part of several of the meetings and at dinner meetings where a speaker has been invited.

Here And There In APD

Condolences

Our condolences to Dr. Frank Tosi, past National Vice President on the death of his father. Mr. Tosi passed away on Saturday, September 30, 1961. Messages of sympathy may be sent to Dr. Frank Tosi, 1503 Pershing Ave., Steubenville, Ohio.

Congratulations

... and best wishes to two newly married couples: Bro. Pat DeLuca and Rachael Taggart, married May 6th; and Bro. Ramo Perrone and Elvira Giannamore, married Oct. 7th. Pat and Ramo are President and Vice-president respectively of the Steubenville Alumni Club.

In Defense Of Our Country

Army 2nd Lieut. Hans W. Pausen, Mu, is a member of the 16th Infantry in Germany. A platoon leader in the Infantry's Company C in Baumholder, he entered the Army in June 1960 following graduation from Cornell University. His family is from Elmhurst, N.Y.

Army 2nd Lieut. David C. Munson, Mu, completed the eight-week officer orientation course at the Air Defense School, Fort Bliss, Texas this past September. The course was designed to provide training in air defense artillery for newly-commissioned artillery officers. He entered the Army in July, 1961 immediately following graduation from Cornell University. His mother resides in Antwerp, N.Y.

First Lt. Joseph M. Pistoria completed the military orientation course at Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, this past July. The course provides training in the treatment of battle injuries, care of personnel suffering from combat exhaustion, and preventive medicine procedures used to detect health hazards and avoid epidemics. Bro. Pistoria hails from Irvington, New Jersey.

Chance Meeting

No matter where you go you'll meet an APD man! Our Editor Stan Raffa, Delta, and Vinnie Marco, Eta, had driven to Las Vegas immediately following the Convention for a little excitement in that fabulous town. While in the Saharan, who should walk in but a school mate of Stan's, Ed Caleca, Delta! Ed was on a stop-over heading home from an out-of-plant assignment. He was staying at the Flamingo, Stan and Vinnie were at the Sands. After a couple of double-takes, hearty greetings and a few drinks, the boys settled down to a little action at the tables, confident that the chance meeting would change their luck which had been all bad. Well, it didn't, but the boys had a great time anyway, which is always the case when APD men get together.

REV. LICATA RESERVE CHAPLAIN

Rev. Donald B. Licata, 3rd District Chaplain, is sworn in as a First Lieutenant in the Army Reserve and assigned as Chaplain to the 1st Battle Group, 306th Infantry, 77th Division. Officiating officer is Lt. Col. Dudley H.L. Garland, Commanding Officer; the Rt. Rev. John A. Flynn, C.M., president of St. John's University witnesses the ceremony. Rev. Licata is the youngest Catholic Chaplain on the Eastern seaboard and the first Catholic Chaplain to serve with the 1st Battle Group H.Q. Co.

Psi Aiming For Top Honors at Carnival

"Real George" is Psi Chapter's entry in this year's annual carnival at Duquesne University. Finishing a close third in last year's annual event, the Brothers of Psi hope to improve on that mark.

"Real George" is a humorous satire on George Washington which suggests that Martha Washington was really responsible for George's success. Some of the songs which are being used in the show include versions of "Hey, Look Me Over" from "Wildcat" and "Politics and Poker" from "Fiorello".

Another trophy which Psi is aiming at is the one for the best front on the Carnival lot. Psi's display will be a scaled replica of Carpenter's Hall where the Declaration of Independence was signed. In front of the hall will sit an almost unbelievable duplication of the Liberty Bell, with crack and all.

As last year, Psi will by-pass the traditional tent and build their own theatre. Unlike last year's this one will have at least half a roof. Again Psi will have to depend on the weather man to keep away the rains.

It should prove to be an interesting carnival and Psi hopes its efforts will be rewarded by a "rain" of trophies to help start the year off right.

Beta Delta Holds 9th Annual Banquet

Beta Delta, Temple University, held its Ninth Annual Banquet at Palumbo's Restaurant in Philadelphia. The affair, which we were not able to include in our last issue of the KLEOS, was held March 9th and was attended by many members of the Philadelphia Alumni Club. Excellent work and planning on the part of the banquet chairman helped in promoting a large turnout. Seated at the head table from left to right, top row: Patrick Pierantozzi, Historian, and his date Miss Lynn Giancaterino, Nicholas F. DiArienzo, Secretary and his date Miss Caroline Lioggia, Rev. Salvatore Federici, National Chaplain, and Mario DiGiuseppe, 4th District Governor. Bottom Row: Donald Luciano, Awards Chairman, Samuel Galasso, Treasurer, and his date Miss Genevieve Girini, Roy Diliberto, President, and his date, Miss Rita DiGiovanni.

Surge of Initiates, Activities at BE

The past year proved to be a very rewarding one for Beta Eta Chapter of Brooklyn College. Holding two initiations during the school year, the Chapter added twelve new Brothers to their roster thereby increasing their present membership to 21. A variety of social and school activities also served to enhance their already fine standing on the campus.

Beta Eta's social season started on October 7 last year when the chapter co-sponsored "The Big A" dance with Alpha Delta Pi, a sorority on the campus. The dance was held at the Imperial Mansion in Brooklyn and proved to be a huge success due to the large support it received from the students of Brooklyn College and the Brothers of the Third District.

On October 21 the Chapter held its Annual Pledge Dinner at Fontana's Restaurant in Brooklyn. By Christmas, the chapter had swelled its ranks by initiation seven new Brothers: Al Cappelli, Joseph Cipriano, Louis Corragio, Frank Fezza, Gerald Gualano, Louis Patane and Philip Tesoriero. Its second initiation, held June 17, added five more Brothers: Gerry Brillante, Joseph Troise, Ralph Musco, Richard Simonetti and Daniel Melore. All Brothers quickly became an integral part of the Chapter, assuming the responsibilities and privileges of Brothers of Alpha Phi Delta.

In December, Beta Eta, in conjunction with Dove House, participated in the Newman Club talent show. A skit, consisting of original songs and poems taking a pessimistic viewpoint of the world's problems, was awarded first prize. The laughter and applause of the audience confirmed the opinion of the judges.

The Chapter held its second dance of the year in April in conjunction with Eta Chapter of CCNY. Music was provided by Bro. Bob Chevolino, Beta Eta alumnus. As well as being a success, the dance served to strengthen the fraternal bond between the respective Chapters.

Individual Brothers also made their marks on the Brooklyn College campus during the year. Brothers Jack Raso and Mario DiSanto held Newman Club posts of Athletic Chairman and External Affairs Chairman respectively. Bro. Leonard Guarini served as the IFC's Fund Raising Chairman. The baseball team profited from the talents of shortstop Don Landolphi; Richard Zangaro posted one of the highest scoring averages on the Rifle Team; and Frank Guarneri is looking forward to an active season with the school Soccer Team next year.

On August 4, the Chapter elected its officers for the coming year. They are: Leonard Guarini, President; Mario DiSanto, Vice-president; Frank Fezza, Treasurer; Louis Patane, Recording Secretary; Ralph Musco, Corresponding Secretary; and Richard Zangaro, Pledgemaster.

Mu Celebrating Big Year On Cornell Campus

The Brothers of Mu Chapter at Cornell University enter the new school year with mixed emotions. The Chapter and its recent alumni were shocked with the tragic death of one of their most popular Brothers, Ron Sacco, '62. Ron was to have graduated next year from the school of Agriculture.

Nevertheless, the Brothers are looking forward to an excellent year for the Chapter. Cornell's football schedule of five home games presents the Brothers with an excellent chance to mix study and pleasure. Mu's social chairman, John "The Great Pumpkin" Grey predicts that the highlights of the fall term will be the annual Fall Weekend and the big Navy Game at Cornell. Many of Mu's alumni, and especially those of the classes of 1960 and 1961 have already expressed their plans to return for the Navy game.

Last Spring was a very successful term for Mu. While the Chapter did not obtain as many Spring pledges as it had hoped, the Chapter did obtain all who were on the "most wanted" list. Bob Rothberg was elected president of the pledge class and Dave Karr designed, organized and directed the construction of new lounge quarters.

The Chapter's "Ben Hur" theme of the I.F.C. weekend in March turned out to be responsible for probably the best weekend has even seen; even better than last year's "Lil Abner" theme. The entire Brotherhood and their dates were dressed in costumes ranging from Ben Hur to Caesar Augustus and enjoyed a Roman feast prepared by Stewart Marco Minasso.

Spring Weekend also turned out to be a huge success. Although the float Mu built with Chi Gamma Sorority did not win first place, the Chapter considered the effort very worth while.

Spring elections produced the following results: Ron Poggi, President; John Lombardi, Vice-President; Curt Taylor, Treasurer; Ron Sander, Secretary; John Grey, Social Chairman; and Fred Helfst, Steward.

The graduating seniors achieved many honors. At least three of them have won fellowships in excess of $10,000 each for graduate study and research in the fields of physical chemistry, psychology, and economic analysis. Brother Al Galves narrowly missed becoming a member of President Kennedy's Peace Corps. In addition, Brother Al Flaherty was elected to one of the most influential posts on the campus, that of Editor in Chief of Cornell's Daily Sun, a daily newspaper with a circulation of 7000.
