FALL 1989

“Chapter Leadership Challenge” Theme For 3 Year Capital Campaign

by Anthony J. Carfang

The 1980's brought many successes to Alpha Phi Delta. Membership has risen steadily and new chapters have been organized. In fact, the fraternity's nearly nine hundred undergraduates and thirty two chapters are records. However, success seems to create its own needs. Our chapter leaders and alumni volunteers can only stretch so far.

The Foundation Board recognizes the importance of making these gains permanent. (We have approached these membership totals on two other occasions in our history, only to fall back under the strain.)

In that regard, the Board has issued the “Chapter Leadership Challenge”, a three year fundraising effort designed to permanently endow many of the fraternity's key activities. The goal is to raise $500,000, the income from which will be used to support programs in four areas:

- Leadership training and workshops for chapter officers,
- Supervisory training and conferences for alumni volunteers,
- Production of chapter management manuals and guides, and
- Full time staff support for administration and training.

Foundation Chairman Mike Zerega and Fraternity President Al Fafara jointly sounded the theme in stating that the 1989 record level of chapter activity should be not a peak but a stepping stone to even greater heights.

The campaign will have two primary components: 1) three year financial pledges of cash contributions by alumni, and 2) a systematic solicitation of estate and memorial gifts from concerned alumni.

Three Year Pledges — Through direct mail solicitation, each alumnus will be asked to commit to a specific level of annual giving for each of the next three years. Six giving levels are suggested:

- Leadership Trustee — $1,000/yr.
- Leadership Patron — $500/yr.
- Leadership Sponsor — $250/yr.
- Leadership Fellow — $100/yr.
- Leadership Associates — $50/yr.
- Sustaining Member — $25/yr.

Each alumnus will be given an opportunity to upgrade his pledge each year.

White House Sends Congratulation on 75th

August 14, 1989

It gives me great pleasure to offer my warmest greetings to all those gathered in Lake Placid, New York, for the 75th Anniversary Convention of the Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity.

For 75 years, your Fraternity has encouraged leadership and civic responsibility among its members while also fostering lasting bonds of friendship.

The source of America's greatness rests with individuals blessed with talent, vision, and character who generously share these gifts with their communities. The Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity has sought young men who possess these qualities as members. Your Fraternity can proudly claim congressmen, judges, and college presidents among its members. I commend you for the positive role Alpha Phi Delta has played on American college campuses.

EXPANSION HIGHLIGHTS ANNIVERSARY CONVENTION

by John J. Russo, Kleos Editor

The 75th Anniversary Convention of Alpha Phi Delta was held amidst the background of the Adirondack Mountains in Lake Placid, New York. The highlight of the week-long agenda was once again the continued expansion of our fraternity. Four new colonies were proposed for chapter status and all four received their charters from the Executive Council. The fraternity welcomed in the following new schools: Gamma Pi chapter at Ramapo State College in Mahwah, New Jersey; Gamma Rho chapter at Baruch College in New York City; Gamma Sigma chapter at St. John's University at Staten Island; and Gamma Tau chapter at Neumann College in Aston, Pennsylvania. With the reactivation of Xi chapter at Ohio State, this puts the fraternity at an all-time high of 33 chapters. This past year also brought in 323 new initiates into the fraternity — a record surpassing the 289 initiated in 1949. These two events helped make the 75th anniversary of Alpha Phi Delta a banner year.

Approximately 80 people were in attendance at Lake Placid for the week of convention activities. While this was less than anticipated, the fraternity is optimistic in seeing a turnaround in convention attendance. With this in mind, President Al Fafara announced that the 1990 National Summer Convention would be held in Williamsburg, Virginia — a new venue for fraternity conventions that should be an attractive vacation spot for Alpha Phi Delta families. While conventioners were not in great supply, there were no shortages of Past National Presidents at Lake Placid. No fewer than eleven past leaders of the fraternity made it to the convention. The oldest was Brother Phil Ottaviano (1946) who made it to his first convention in several years.

The next National Council meeting will be held in Philadelphia on the weekend of February 16, 17, and 18. National Secretary Joe Rossi will coordinate the affair.

Typical of litigious life in 1980s: The annual alumni/undergraduate softball game was canceled at Lake Placid. The fraternity could not get a softball field for lack of having liability insurance coverage.

It was announced that the fraternity is updating The History of Alpha Phi Delta through 1989. Jim Lentini is authoring the years 1973 — 1989 (picking up where our most recent published History leaves off). Targeted sale date is January 1991.

One of the yearly highlights is the annual luncheon shared by Brothers 50 years or longer in the Fraternity. This year 11 showed up to reminisce once more their undergraduate days.

THE MORNING AFTER

Oh, my head.

Where the hell am I? Let's see. Oh yeah. Dorm room. O.K., how did I get here? Last thing I remember was that party last night, I think. Heah, couldn't have been the night before. Why do I feel like complete trash? Let's see, I didn't have any more beers than usual. What a dozen or so mugs full? Well, maybe more, but who was counting? Oh yeah, a few shots of Charlie's Jack Daniels, maybe that had something to do with it. It hurts to move. What's that? All right! All right! Stop banging on the door! Even my hair hurts. Oh, it's you Jack, come on in. Yeah, some party! We're doing real well at A.P.D. here this semester. What? Oh, you brought a couple of bones. I don't know, man, I feel like hell. Oh all right. Didn't we do a couple of these before the party? Yeah, that's right. No wonder I got so wasted. You remember anything I did last night? I was trying to make some chick I know, then things got real fuzzy and the next thing I knew, I woke up here. Funny, I did the same thing last week. Must be the shots. Or maybe the pot. Think maybe I'll lay off them and just stick to the beer. At least then maybe I'll remember. What's that? I didn't make it to the end of the party? How did I get back here? Really? Last thing you saw was me staggering out the door, huh? Hell, I'm lucky I didn't pass out in some parking lot or on somebody's lawn. I guess I didn't do too well with that babe. Huh? What did I hit her for? No, I sure as hell don't remember that. Oh screw it, she probably deserved it anyway. There'll be other girls at other parties. Oh, who could that be calling now? Oh, right, it's almost noon. Hello. Oh, Hi Joe. Yeah, I was just sitting here rapping with Jack. What? I don't know man. I was planning on staying in and studying tonight. Yeah, yeah, I know, I still got time in the semester, but I'm not doing too good right now. Don't forget, Joe, I'm two semesters on probation and if I don't do it now they're going to kick me out of school. Just out of curiosity, where were you planning to go? Oh, yeah, that's a real hot spot. Well, besides that, I'm a little low on cash. Oh, stop at your place for awhile? Cold case? Yeah, I haven't done that in a few weeks. Well, let me call you later, maybe I can get something done this afternoon. Yeah, don't worry, I'm not dead broke, I can afford a few at the joint. O.K., see you later. So, what do you think of that, Jack? Joe and a few of the brothers are hitting that new place on Main Street tonight. What do you mean no? What are you, some kind of a wuss? Yeah, I know I told him maybe, but the hangover can't last forever. By tonight I'll be O.K. Studying? Well I can always do that tomorrow. Yeah, I know all I do on Sunday is watch football and drink beer. So Sunday night. What's the difference? Yeah, I know I'm no good to the chapter if I fail out. Don't worry about it. I've got a few weeks left. Plenty of time. Hey, let me have another one of those brews; that first one went down real

Scholarship Foundation Awards 20; Draws Record Number of Donations

The National Scholarship Foundation Awards were presented on August 24, 1989, the evening of Alpha Phi Delta's Award Dinner. A record number of Awards were presented to various deserving and needy individuals. Nineteen of the awards were for $750 and one was for $1000.

The record number of awards was made possible partially by the number of contributions obtained last year. A total of $44,000 was contributed. The Fund now totals over $200,000.

A total of 62 valid applications were received this year and as can be imagined the trustees had a difficult time in judging the awards. (They are limited to the amount of interest accumulated over the year). This year they expect even more applications. To close the gap between awards and contributions will be the challenge this year.

The Trustees of the National Scholarship Foundation thank all who have contributed in the past and urge these and others to come forward this coming year and make it a truly spectacular one for scholarship.

Outstanding Undergraduate Joseph Narcisso - Gamma Lambda

by Joseph Alaimo

Joseph Narcisso has played a great part in affecting the lives of many young men at Fordham University. Besides being one of the original founders of the chapter, Joe also served as its first President. This task cannot be underestimated considering the fact that Fordham University is a Jesuit school. Jesuit schools have traditionally been very anti-fraternity. This is evident by the fact that Gamma Lambda is the only existing fraternity on campus. It has been through Joe Narcisso's hard work and dedication towards a project that he loves, that has allowed Gamma Lambda to exist and become prosperous.

At Fordham, Joe has strived to improve student life. In his Sophomore year he was elected to a Senate position on the United Student Government. Later that year he was named President Pro Tempore of the Senate. In his Junior year he was elected Student Body President. During this time, Joe remained active in the fraternity while maintaining a 3.5 GPA.

Nationally, Joe has done an outstanding job. Besides starting Gamma Lambda, Joe was instrumental in the formation of Gamma Omicron chapter at Stony Brook. He also single-handedly tried to start a chapter at the Fordham University campus at Rose Hill. He moved out to the Rose Hill campus, but once it was evident that the University was not going to change its fraternity policy on that campus, he moved back out. He also held a summer expansion pledge period in the summer of 1987 in the hopes of expanding Alpha Phi Delta to the Boston area.

In his Sophomore year, Joe was elected Vice President of Undergraduate Affairs for a term and a half. During his tenure in office, Joe tried very hard to communicate with the Undergraduate population. He has visited every chapter in the third district. While he was V.P., he also served on the Tri-State Re-districting Committee and wrote articles for the Oracle.

Currently, Brother Narcisso works at Chase Manhattan Bank and is an active member of the Brooklyn Alumni Club softball team.

It is difficult for me to sum up the feelings of an entire chapter in just a few lines. The Brothers of Gamma Lambda, as well as others in the fraternity, have the highest respect for Joe Narcisso. When he does something for the fraternity, either Locally or Nationally, he does it because he loves Alpha Phi Delta. He exemplifies what brotherhood is all about.

President Fafara congratulates Brother Sme.

Outstanding Alumnus Ron Sme - Beta Sigma

by James Lentini

Ronald Sme has been around many years on the active roster of Alpha Phi Delta. He was an active member of Beta Sigma (St. Francis College) Chapter, holding many chapter offices. A year after graduation, in 1968, he became Third District Governor. During his term he coordinated the many events in the district and with the help of the Rev. Brother Camillus Casey, O.S.F. revised the ritual of the national fraternity.

After his tenure as Governor ended, Brother Sme moved on to what would become a long standing activity with the New York Alumni Club. As a member of this club he pressed the group to get closer and work more with the undergraduate chapters to strengthen them. This occurred on an extensive basis and would ultimately save Delta and Beta Eta chapters, as well as reactivate Theta Beta, Beta Beta and the Brooklyn A.C. in the 70s.

By the late 70s Brother Sme would bear the title of Third District Governor by a unanimous vote of the entities of the area. During this second reign as Governor, Ron oversaw the full reactivation of Beta Beta, a saving of Delta and the installation of Beta Omega Chapter. As Governor he published a monthly newsletter ("The News at 3") for the use of the entities. He kept the lines of communication open and strong.

In 1980 Brother Sme, with enthusiastic prodding from many, ran for the post of National President. He lost by a handful of votes but was and still is spoken of highly for many of the goals that he wanted to accomplish. Undaunted by defeat, he moved on to serve as Vice President for Alumni Affairs.

In 1981, when the fraternity was saddened by the sudden death of Brother Camillus Casey, O.S.F., Ron, one of the brothers closest to Camillus, decided to perpetuate Brother Camillus's name by establishing a scholarship fund in his memory. Brother Sme was in large part responsible for this fund which was later incorporated into the Alpha Phi Delta Foundation.

In 1984, Ron took on what had always been an honor he coveted. He was named Executive Secretary of Alpha Phi Delta and moved Central Office to New York City. At the outset Ron began revamping Central Office with a good looking monthly 'Chapter Letter' for the entities and much personal correspondence. Unfortunately numerous personal and job conflicts arose forcing Ron to announce that he could not in good conscience properly execute his fraternal duties.

In 1989 Ron was elected President of the New York Alumni Club and continued the tradition of leadership in a club that provided many leaders.

In his many years in Alpha Phi Delta, Ron has also served on many national committees, including: The Ritual Committee, The Executive Committee, The Legislative Committee, The Resolutions Committee, The Alumni Coordinating Committee, The Third District Restructuring Committee, The Good and Welfare Committee, The Awards Committee, etc.

1989 CONVENTION AWARDS

Beta Pi — Outstanding Chapter in 1989

by Franklyn Liberatore, Chapter President

What makes an 'outstanding chapter'? Is it just doing charity events? Is it just having a large roster of undergraduate brothers? Is it just having a group of guys 'hanging out'?

We think not. It is all of these and more. We at Beta Pi feel that we exemplify all of these qualities.

COMMUNITY SERVICE & CHARITY

The one thing which makes a fraternity great is the activity of its undergraduate brothers. Over the past year we at Beta Pi have been involved in a great many things to improve the community.

- We assisted Lambda Phi Sorority in a "Yellow Rose for Muscular Dystrophy" sale, in which we were the top financial contributor.

- At Christmas time the chapter ran a Raffle and gift sale for the American Cancer Society; the event was dubbed 'The Seven Days of Christmas'.

- We were very instrumental in organizing a chapter of Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) at St. John's. For our efforts and financial contribution to this cause we received a plaque from SADD recognizing our efforts, which were over and above that of any other campus group.

- We visited Schnieder's Children's Hospital, a division of Long Island Jewish Hospital in New Hyde Park, which specializes in the care of cancer patients and terminally ill children. We entertained the patients by presenting an hour-long clown show and distributed balloons.

ACTIVITY WITH THE FRATERNITY

Alpha Phi Delta is an undergraduate fraternity, therefore it needs the activity and support of its undergraduate brothers; without that we would no longer exist. Over the past year Beta Pi Chapter has performed a plethora of fraternal activities and deeds to support the fraternity and keep it energetic. Activities and highlights of the past years include, but are not limited to the following:

- We assisted the Expansion Office of Alpha Phi Delta in its effort to start a chapter of the fraternity at Hofstra University on Long Island.

- This Spring we aided in the expansion process of the establishment of our colony at our sister campus, St. John's University — Staten Island.

- In 1988 and 1989 we attended the Winter Convention with the largest contingent each time. This year we attended with eighteen men, and last year with 12.

- Past Beta Pi Chapter President Michael Denninno was elected the Outstanding Undergraduate of the Third District East.

- This July, we hosted a Third District East Picnic in an effort to keep our fraternity active over the Summer. Brothers from many chapters attended. Some fifty brothers attended.

- Beta Pi Chapter has a regular newsletter — The Roving Eye of Beta Pi. The newsletter is sent to all chapter presidents and national officers in order to keep the brotherhood apprised of Beta Pi's activities and schedule.

INTER-CHAPTER ACTIVITIES

Being part of a national fraternity we feel that it is very important to visit and maintain contact with the other chapters. We have attended several meetings of other chapters. We have also made visits to other chapters for social and pledge functions including Beta Xi, Psi, Beta Lambda, Beta Omega, Beta Eta, Beta Sigma, and Gamma Omicron.

GROWTH OF THE CHAPTER

Since its reactivation in 1986 Beta Pi has added a total of 50 new brothers to the roster of Alpha Phi Delta. In the Fall of 1986 we started with a meager four brothers on campus. In the Spring of 1989 we had grown to a chapter of 42. This growth represents the hard work and enthusiasm of the brothers of the chapter.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

In addition to socializing and keeping good relations with the other campus fraternities and sororities, we hold events for the entire student body. Over the past year we held numerous parties in the Rathskeller at the student union building of the University, in order to socialize with all students. Additionally, we partake in the campus Activity Fair to give non-fraternity students a better understanding of what we are all about.

Beta Pi brothers in Lake Placid

ITALIAN HERITAGE

Culturally, Beta Pi maintains the Italian Heritage of the fraternity by stressing it during their rush and social schedules. During our rush meetings, smokers and campus gatherings we serve canolis and cappuccino. Many of the brothers of the chapter are active members of the Italian Society on campus and support its activities. Also, we are supporting the school's Italian Society to help bring opera productions back on campus.

CONCLUSIONS

In conclusion, we feel that Beta Pi has taken upon itself many activities and deeds during the past few years. The chapter did not only do the usual pledging and social events; we went beyond that. We tried to be active on the national, district and school levels, we tried to go out of our way for charity and community work, we tried many, many things that were aimed making Beta Pi excel. We feel that we have excelled this past year.

1989 CONVENTION SCRAPBOOK

Beta Delta Grabs Most Improved Award

The brothers of Beta Delta at Temple University capped off a fine year with the receipt of the Most Improved Chapter Award. They began the 1988-89 school year by moving into a house for the first time in many years. In October they raised $500 at a Halloween fundraiser and contributed the money to the Philadelphia Homeless. In November they held the first ever Fourth District Pledge Bowl. Another fundraiser brought $750 for Cystic Fibrosis. Their fall pledge class brought in four new brothers.

The spring semester started off with a ski trip during which they met two men from Neumann College. Through Beta Delta's efforts these two men started an Alpha Phi Delta colony at Neumann. They also began working with Eastern Service Workers Association (which is a non-profit organization designed to help destitute families in the Philadelphia area) on several charitable causes. In February several brothers were able to travel to Pittsburgh to attend the National Council meeting. In April the brothers took third place in Greek Olympics and held a fundraiser for the chapter. They again inducted four new brothers in the spring.

Pittsburgh Captures Alumni Club Award

For the second year in a row (and fifth time in the 1980s) the Pittsburgh Alumni Club took home the Most Outstanding Alumni Club Award. Boasting a paid membership of over 90 brothers, this group meets for dinners regularly on the first Friday of every month. Last year they completed a donation to the National Scholarship Fund for an award to be given in their name. This year they have continued working on an endowment to the General Fund of the Alpha Phi Delta Foundation with a donation of $250.00. Seven brothers were on hand at Lake Placid to accept their 1989 Award. From left: Frank Costanzo, Calvin Shipley, Jules Zangrille, John Russo, Adam DiVincenzo and Paul Russo.

Not Just A Convention, But A Reunion Too

This year's convention brought special meaning to a group of brothers from Beta Eta Chapter circa 1939. Earlier this year Brother Frank Mugno came up with the idea of having a reunion with some of the brothers he was in school with. He wrote to Tony Carfang at Alpha Phi Delta Foundation and asked if he would give him a mailing list of brothers from beta Eta Chapter from the late 1930's. Tony sent him the list, and Brother Mugno wrote the letters. The group you see in the picture was the result. Rear from left: John Pasquariello (Beta Eta '36) and his wife Celeste, Ralph Brande (Beta Eta '39), Sal Lapone (Beta Eta '39), Frank Mugno (Beta Eta '39); seated from left: Athena Mugno, Eleanor Lapone, Rose Marie Brande. All eight enjoyed themselves and are looking forward to Williamsburg in 1990.

Not Just A Convention, But A Vacation Too

This group of conventioners enjoyed a family vacation at Lake Placid also. Pictured here are the families of Calvin Shipley (Psi '75), John Russo (Psi '74), and Joe Rahtelli (Beta Beta '85). They were sightseeing at the Olympic 90 Meter Ski Jump.

Joseph S. Bauda

Joseph S. Bauda, Epsilon '36, was inducted into the "Pharmacy Hall of Fame", at a dinner dance, June 11, sponsored by the Pharmacists' Association of Western New York (PAWNY).

A graduate of UB School of Pharmacy, Mr. Bauda was lauded for his accomplishments as: Past President of University of Buffalo Pharmacy Alumni Association, Erie County Pharmaceutical Association, Galen Pharmaceutical Society, and as Honorary Past President of the Pharmaceutical Society of the State of New York (PSSNY).

Bauda was cited for receiving the prestigious Willis G. Gregory Award in 1974, from UB, for outstanding service to community pharmacy. In 1978, he was the recipient of the coveted A.H. Robins Bowl of Hygeia Award, which is given to one individual who "exemplifies the ideals of community pharmacy" within each state.

He was named "Elk of the Year" in 1976, and served as Exalted Ruler of BPOE #1942 Amherst Elks Lodge, where he is a charter member. He is a past vice-president of the New York State Elks, and has recently received an award for 1600 hours of volunteer service to the Veterans' Administration Medical Center.

In October, Bauda was honored at a Columbus Day Testimonial at the Convention Center for his work with the disadvantaged, veterans, and youth, through various civic, fraternal, and humanitarian projects.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Alpha Phi Delta, Pittsburgh branch, still meets regularly in their 55th year as a club. This group just finished enjoying a dinner meeting in June at a Pittsburgh restaurant. (Photo by Mary Russo — wife of the Kleos Editor and newly elected president of LAAPDA. Sorry guys, she made The Kleos Editor put this in.)

His wife, the former Rose Quagliana, is also a pharmacist. They have two daughters, Beverly, and Carol, both teachers in the Buffalo System.

A commemorative plaque, listing Bauda's numerous achievements, is located in the Hall of Fame, Cooke Hall, School of Pharmacy, UB Amherst Campus.

On June 14, 1989, Brother Edward T. Lombardo (XI-) and his wife Margaret celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary with a huge gala dinner at the Athletic Club in downtown Columbus, Ohio. Approximately 400 guests were present including many brothers of Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity from all over Ohio.

GAMMA LAMBDA

Fordham University

Dear Brothers,

We would like to keep you informed of what has and what will happen here at Fordham University. During these past two semesters, (1988-89) we have inducted thirteen new brothers who undoubtedly will be a credit to the Fraternity. That number is excellent at a school which consists of only 500 traditional undergraduates. Fordham at Lincoln Center is a school which caters mainly to graduate and adult studies. It also has a large theater department which takes up a majority of the student population. These drama people usually don't have the time to pledge or be active because of play rehearsals. This causes us to feel proud of the fact that we have been able to achieve the amount of brothers we have, 33. This has come in a relatively short time.

During the course of this year, we threw a VERY successful party at a very popular dance club here in Manhattan, called the Tunnel. We made $500 dollars from the event. In the future, we plan to have a party every month at different clubs.

This year we've elected Joe Alaimo President and "Crazy" Nick Franki, Vice-President.

We also would like to welcome our two newest brothers Alexi Declet and Brian Fischer, who were inducted in April.

We hope to hear from brothers from all over the fraternity very soon.

BAC CAPTURES FIRST SOFTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

by Charles Fiore

After 13 years, 7354 at bats, 234 games, 76 different players, 42 practices, 3 fractured fingers, 2 broken legs, one fractured face bone, a hand full of concussions, numerous precautionary X-rays and more scrapes and bruises than the Kenas quintuplets, The Brooklyn Alumni Club softball team has won the Staten Island Softball Association Championship.

The Alpha Phi Delta team completed the double elimination tournament undefeated, with its fifth straight win on October 1, 1989, by a 5-1 margin.

Every year since 1977 the BAC has fielded a team in the Staten Island "Arc Ball" Sunday morning league. Seventy-six alumni from 11 different chapters have played for the team at one time or another.

The team started its first year with $3 tee shirts with the Alpha Phi Delta crest and hats reading "BAC", causing more than one adversary to ask, "What the hell is "BAC?" By the tenth year, the fourth uniform change was to the manufacturer of uniforms for major league baseball. A single uniform cost more than the entire uniform cost for the team in the first two years.

Playing on the team is a major personal commitment. Practices begin in March, the regular season is usually 18 weeks long and the playoffs can be as long as 7 or 8 additional weeks.

Team manager Joe Caldarella (Beta Sigma '76) looks on as Right Fielder/First Baseman Doug Awn (Theta Beta '84) swings for the fences.

Although a number of wives and girlfriends have been known to root for early playoff elimination, the games are well attended and enjoyed by family members and friends.

The BAC was reactivated after years of inactivity in 1973 by a group of young Beta Sigma alumni. In 1976 the club added alumni of several third district chapters. The original softball team included 10 members of the class of '76. Interestingly none of the original team members lived in Staten Island. Most resided in Brooklyn and some in New Jersey. Staten Island which is located between Brooklyn and central New Jersey was the logical choice for the team.

Membership on the team is open to All Alpha Phi Delta brothers. Everyone who attends a game is given a chance to play. Even with 10 fielders and an offensive hitter, giving everyone a chance to play, while remaining competitive, has been a genuine challenge for Joe Caldarella, (Beta Sigma '76) over his decade as manager.

Winning has always been secondary. The softball team exists to help the club, and the fraternity. Even in the recent championship game, team policy was upheld when several starters were replaced during the game in order to give everyone a chance to play.

While only four players have played in each of the 13 seasons, (Neil Anastasio, Theta Beta '76, Joe Caldarella, Beta Sigma '76; Steve Jones, Beta Eta '76; and Joe Nunziata, Beta Sigma '73), a dozen others have played for 10 years or more. Most members of the club have played for at least one season.

The goal of the BAC softball team, at its inception was not to win a championship, but to promote fraternalism and attract new graduates to the club. The result has been to create a closeness among its members usually seen only on the undergraduate level.

As to the future of the team: First practice of the 90's — March 30, 1990.

Wives Mrs. Mike Maniello, Mike Iacovelli, and Ralph Parmegiani did not believe that we would send this picture taken at the recent championship game to the Kleos. Do you believe us now?

Capital Campaign

Estate and Memorial Gifts — Alpha Phi Delta has a number of very specific needs which are listed in the Catalog of Estate and Memorial Giving. A gift can be made in the name of the donor or in memory of a loved one. Then, each year, the income from the gift will be used for the designated purpose.

Here are some examples from the catalog:

- A $5,000 gift will endow the training of one undergraduate chapter officer at leadership workshops each year. One hundred and twenty of these are needed.
- A $10,000 gift will endow a $750 annual scholarship in the name of the donor.
- A $10,000 gift will endow chapter officer management manuals. Eight of these are needed.
- A $50,000 gift will endow an alcohol abuse education program. A similar need exists for a drug abuse education program.
- A $100,000 gift will endow a cultural awareness program. Five of these are needed.

The catalog also describes the many options available for giving under this program. They range from outright contributions and bequests, to life insurance assignment and remainder trusts. The catalog is available from the foundation office 9248 Ridgeway Ave., Evanston IL 60203.

Nickolas, Fiandaca, Moscato Meet The "Challenge"

The "Chapter Leadership Challenge" got off to a fast start as brothers Ed Nickolas, Nu '32, Patsy Fiandaca, Pi '32, and James Moscato, Xi '29, made sizeable gifts to the Foundation.

Bro. Nickolas, in making an estate gift, purchased a certificate of deposit in the name of himself and the Foundation, giving the Foundation right of survivorship. In this way, Ed will enjoy lifetime interest income from the CD and the principal will pass to the Foundation upon his death.

Bro. Fiandaca made an outright cash contribution in the name of the Fiandaca Family and Bro. Moscato's cash gift was in memory of the deceased brothers of Xi Chapter.

Brotherhood Doesn't Die; It Just Gets Stronger

by Dorothy Palazzo

It was 1946 when Al Palazzo and Joseph Fertitta met at New York University. Al pledged Theta Beta chapter and became a brother in February, 1946. Joe also pledged and became a brother in September 1946. The bonds of brotherhood were being forged.

In September 1947, I, Dotty Palazzo, nee Costanzo, was a freshman at New York University. I met Maria D'Alessandro (better known as Delly) and she and I immediately became "best friends". Within the next four years Delly married Joe and I married Al. We raised our children together, shared good times and bad times and started to get old together. As the years passed, we saw less and less of each other, but the bond remained.

During Easter vacation of this year, Al and I, with our son, Danny, and his friend, Michael, visited Delly and Joe in Ft. Myers, Florida where they now live. It had been eight years since we had been together. But it is a funny thing with brotherhood and true friendship. Time passes but it doesn't erase the past. Forty years from the time we all first met, a few pounds heavier (in Al's case, a few pounds lighter), hair sparse and gray (in Delly and my case, hair lighter) our friendship withstood the passage of time and has remained as strong as it was "when we were young and gay", when gay was not what gay is today.

Yes, it is a long time since the days in New York University's Commons. The bond of brotherhood saw us through the days of our youth, and thank God, the bonds of brotherhood will see us through the rest of our lives.

Al Palazzo, Delly and Joe Fertitta.

It is my feeling that we brothers should be asking ourselves and each other the following questions:

Why are the older chapters so inactive; and the younger so active?

Can we learn from the marketing strategies of the younger chapters?

Will we, APD, really survive to see active chapters in the 21st century?

*Fraternally yours,
Edoardo Roncone

Alumni Clubs Organizing In Florida And Georgia

With over 250 known alumni living in Florida and Georgia, moves are underway to organize Alpha Phi Delta alumni clubs. Bob Rini, Eta '51 got the ball rolling by volunteering to organize an Atlanta alumni club. Sam Catanzano, Nu '51 has agreed to assist Bob. We are still looking for project organizers for Florida.

Anyone interested in these or any other possible alumni clubs should contact Jim Lentini, Vice President for Expansion at 1734 73rd Street, Brooklyn, NY 11204.

smooth. You know, that's a great way to beat a hangover, stay wasted all the time. Ha. Ha. What do you mean that's what I've been doing anyway? Don't worry about it. I know what's good for me. Hey, if you're not going out tonight, you got a couple of bucks you can spot me? Yeah, I know I got to get another part time job soon. Just haven't gotten around to looking for one yet. The last one? Hey, I didn't want that job anyway. The boss was a real yo-yo. No, that didn't have anything to do with it. I always acted real straight when he was around. No way he could tell I was high. Well, I'm not that far behind on my chapter dues. I know, second month, but as soon as I get a job . . . Well, let's see, I think I'll go back to bed. Yeah, finish this can, then sleep for awhile. Want to be in good shape to party some more tonight. Seems like I did that last weekend, too. Oh well, when it gets time, I'll just stop and get back to work, studying and all that. Sure, when it's time . . . when it's time . . .

Note: National President Al Fafara is a recovering alcoholic and a former drug abuser who took his last drink and drug on February 19, 1984, before embarking on an extensive program of recovery. The National Interfraternity Conference has cited drug and alcohol abuse as the number one problem facing the American Fraternity System today.
