Scholarship Gains New Sponsors

The scholarship fund grew handsomely this year with two additional donations made to the list of sponsors: Anthony J. Carfang, Psi '69, and Stanley W. Raffa, Delta '49. Both are members of the Board of Trustees as well as past national presidents of Alpha Phi Delta. Donations of $10,000 qualify to have an Alpha Phi Delta Scholarship given annually in the name of the sponsor.

Stanley W. Raffa was born on September 3, 1925, in New York City. He attended Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn and Adelphi University graduating with a B.S. degree in physics.

After a pledge period of five months, he was accepted by Delta Chapter and became a member of Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity. He has served as METROVOX Editor (a District publication), KLEOS Editor for 16 years, National Vice President, National President, Vice President of Alumni Affairs, District Governor, National Secretary and currently

Stanley W. Raffa

Chairman of the Scholarship Division of the Alpha Phi Delta Foundation, Inc. Somewhere along the line he found time to write "The History Of Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity, 1914 - 1973."

He served in the Army for two years, was a P.O.W. in Germany and is a member of the V.F.W. He got his first job as a technical writer through a fraternity man; did some analytical work on a defense system for the B-52's, and was a supervisor for the launch tests for Guidance at Vandenburg Air Force Base. He later joined Western Union as a supervisor then director and assistant vice president responsible for the installation of their TLX/T W X (t e l e x) communications systems throughout the country.

He has been retired for nine years, but Alpha Phi Delta still keeps him busy. He has attended nearly all of the conventions and is looking forward towards his 50th anniversary in 1999 when he will sit down with his contemporaries and

President's Message

The Alpha Phi Delta Web Page is up and running. Check us out at WWW.APD.ORG. This is great stuff, and I want to thank Past National President Glenn Small for all of his work on this project.

In recent years many of the problems of the Fraternity seemed to stem from a simple lack of communication. We have been taking steps towards solving this problem. The Web Page will be a great help in this effort. Additionally, the Executive Secretary is now sending out the Chapter Letter to all members for whom we have an E-mail address. If you would like to be included in this distribution, please contact me at APDPRESTJC@aol.com.

With improved communications in mind, I recently appointed Brother Todd Halbert as Vice President for Public Relations. His primary function will be to help Central Office to communicate with the chapters. He has been charged with personally contacting each entity. He has not only been informing them of important dates and deadlines, he has been working with several of our smaller chapters to help them with the problems of running a chapter and recruitment.

There is more good news in our battle to improve communications. Matthew Vislocky, Executive Vice President recently moved back to New Jersey from Texas and is already planning on several visits to chapters, alumni clubs and alumni associations. Colonies at Robert Morris and Roger Williams will most likely be chartered at the Spring Meeting of the National Council. This is a great achievement and great thanks are due to Joe Piras for all his hard work as Vice President for Expansion.

In other Fraternity news, the Hudson Valley District has announced a "Career Night" in March. Anyone interested in meeting the undergraduate members of the chapters of that district and helping with the event should contact Rob DeVito. (E-mail address is rdevito@ibm.net).

After some difficult times at Villanova and the University of Pennsylvania, things are looking very positive for both of these chapters. The Delaware Valley Alumni Club is looking into helping these chapters by hosting a "Career Night" in the very near future. The club is working with me to re-activate the chapter at Temple. With all of these things going on, it won't be long before the Philadelphia District is also re-activated.

NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETING AT PENN STATE IN APRIL

The spring meeting of the National Council will convene on Saturday, April 10, 1999 at 10:00 a. m. in State College, Pa. The Executive Committee will meet Friday night at 9:00 p.m. at the Chi Chapter House. The National Council meetings will be on the campus of the Pennsylvania State University. The exact location of the meeting rooms will be published in the next Chapter

1999 SUMMER CONVENTION SLATED FOR LAKE GEORGE

The 1999 Alpha Phi Delta Summer Convention will be held in Lake George, New York in August. Convention Chairman Frank Riccardo is busy putting the final package together. A mailing with all the details concerning exact dates and costs will be sent out at the beginning of March. There is not a better place for boating, fishing, and enjoying time with brothers and families.

Due to recent changes in the Constitution and bylaws of the Fraternity, the National Council will not be convening during this convention. Therefore, this will be a great opportunity for brothers of all ages, their friends and families to meet and enjoy a much needed vacation without the worries of attending meetings.

The Executive Committee will meet during the convention and the traditional Awards Banquet will be held at the end of the week. If you have any questions concerning the Summer Convention before you receive the mailing, please call Tom Carroll at (610) 239-9210.

YEAR 2000 CONVENTION PLANNED FOR LAS VEGAS

President Tom Carroll is pleased to announce that the Alpha Phi Delta Summer Convention for 2000 will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada. This news has already generated much excitement with many people asking why we can't go there this summer. The exact date and cost details will be announced shortly.

The news gets even better when we start talking about pricing. The cost per individual to go to Las Vegas including air fare, hotel, the use of a hospitality suite, and the Awards Banquet will be less than the cost of last year's convention in Ocean City, Maryland.

Las Vegas is an exciting city with attractions for all ages. In addition to all of the casinos, entertainment and shopping there are many historic and recreational facilities nearby such as Lake Mead and Hoover Dam. Mark your calendars and start saving your money now for the Summer 2000 Las enjoy a "meal on the house," a tradition he established over twenty years ago.

Anthony J. "Tony" Carfang matriculated at Duquesne University where he pledged Psi Chapter as a freshman in 1969. Tony served as the chapter's Treasurer and President and was instrumental in the fund-raising for the Federici-Niehaus Memorial that was constructed at Duquesne in 1972.

After graduating, Tony went on to Northwestern University to earn a Master's degree in business and ended up residing in Chicago. He served Alpha Phi Delta as its Vice President and President from 1978-82. During his terms as national officer, he was instrumental in founding the Alpha Phi Delta Foundation to serve as a nonprofit fund-raising arm of the Fraternity. Tony served as a trustee and Executive Secretary to the Foundation for a dozen years.

He and his wife Carol (whom he met at Duquesne) have four children ages 17, 14, 11 and 9. Together, they enjoy bicycle riding, chess, classical music and travel. Although Tony and Carol moved to Chicago right after graduation from Duquesne, they manage to make it back to Pittsburgh to visit their parents several times each year. Currently he is a partner at Treasury Strategies, Inc., a management consulting firm specializing in banking and corporate finance.

Tony wrote to The Kleos, "I decided to make the Alpha Phi Delta Scholarship Fund my primary charitable beneficiary because of all that the fraternity has meant to me. Not only was it the source of formation and support during my college years, but it has also been my extended family. Like most brothers, I am still in touch with my local chapter contemporaries. I also am part of a much larger network of fraternity brothers that I have met since my graduation. It is truly something special.

"I started my scholarship fund when I was 45. Although I still have four children of my own to put through college, I felt it was important to get something started and 'get into the rhythm'. Without that discipline, there will always be a reason to put it off. Getting started is the toughest part. I have been contributing $5,000

Kleos Error

In the last issue of The Kleos, our new Executive Secretary was mistakenly identified as Felipe Hernandez instead of Felipe R. Martinez Jr. The Kleos apologizes for this error and for any embarrassment or inconvenience this may have caused. Santa Visits The BAC

The Brooklyn Alumni Club was visited by Santa Claus for the 13th year at the home of recent parents Gene & Gina Gemelli. With 11 brothers and 18 children, and 6 feet of hero, a lot of holiday cheer was shared by all.

This highlights a "BAC Baby Boom" of recent years. Most of the children who participated in the original parties are now in High School, but the fertility in the club is stronger than ever securing Santa's arrival for years to come. Should those who missed this year's event due to other Christmas commitments come next year, a hall will need to be reserved.

Scholarship Winners Series: Where Are They Now?

Here are two more letters that Stan Raffa received in response to his question: scholarship winners — where are they now?

The first one is from Nicholas Corrado of Gamma Zeta Chapter and Corrado and Martella, Attorneys-at-law. “I was pleased to see the long list of scholarships awarded by APD through the years. I received two of them, 1983 and 1984, while I was at Villanova University. I was among the small group of underclassmen who founded Gamma Zeta Chapter with the guidance of Rich Primiano, Ed Magliocco and two transfers from the Glassboro chapter.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Leanna Thomas is presented her 1998 Scholarship Award check by her father, Anthony Thomas, a past president of Beta Omicron chapter of Youngstown State University.

“I have my own law office in my hometown of Jersey City. I started this office in March 1994 after six years at a large firm in Roseland. Mark Martella, my partner, was my little brother when he was part of the second or third rush class at Gamma Zeta.

“The scholarships I received ($500 each) were very helpful in making ends meet as a student and further convinced me that I had chosen the right fraternity. I always consider my involvement with Alpha Phi Delta to be one of the highlights of my college experience.”

And to show that scholarship continues to be a worthy cause, this letter is from one of this year’s winners (David Gagliardotto, Delta Kappa '97, SUNY Binghamton).

“Thank you very much for choosing me as the recipient of an $800 award. The confidence of such an outstanding national fraternity is truly an honor. I will work to the best of my ability to continue to live up your high scholastic standards.

“My father and uncle are both alumni of Alpha Phi Delta, and they remind me of the high ethics and moral standards that this organization instills in its members. They have made lasting friendships as a result of their membership and they have guided me along the same paths.

“Thank you again for this award. The money will help defray the costs of tuition and books so that I will not begin my career with heavy education loan payments.”

The Kleos announces the following deaths. We apologize for the lack of timeliness of some announcements. Due to the lack of publication regularity the past few years, many death notices were overlooked.

Anthony C. D'Agostino, Ph.D., Epsilon '60, passed away March 24, 1998 of a heart attack at age 59. He pledged at SUNY Buffalo. He was an anthropology professor at St. John Fisher College (from 1969 to 1997). He served as a trustee of the East Rochester (New York) Public Library and as a member of the board of directors of the Opera Theatre of Rochester. He was a lover of grand opera and Italian culture and art.

He was a member of the Long Island Alumni Club (LIAC) and served as its president. He also served on National's housing committee and was a recipient of the Third District's Outstanding Alumnus Award in 1975.

Lou Verderese, MD, Eta '31, passed away November 1997 from a heart attack at the age of 85. Lou was a lifelong member of the LIAC. He went to CCNY as an undergraduate and received his medical degree from the University of Siena Medical School in Siena, Italy. He last practiced on the staff of Eastern Long Island Hospital (from 1967 to 1981) and was actually known to have made numerous house calls. Lou used to be a regular at APD summer conventions and is sadly missed by those who knew him.

Anthony J. Nista, Kappa '39, died December 31st, 1998 in Mayfield Heights, Ohio. He was 83. Tony was born in Italy and moved to the United States in the 1920s. Happy 70th Birthday Kleos!

Our fraternity's official publication turns 70 in 1999 — having started back in 1929. Following is a clip taken from the History of Alpha Phi Delta written by Stanley Raffa in 1972 and updated to bring it current.

Alpha Phi Delta's national publication, KLEOS, was established at the 1929 National Convention held in Boston, Mass. The name KLEOS was actually not adopted until the 1930 Buffalo Convention and indeed, the first two issues simply bore the name "The Magazine of Alpha Phi Delta."

KLEOS is an ancient Greek word meaning news or fame. Rather appropriate, it was surprising that no other fraternity had previously used it.

In 70 years of continuous publication, The KLEOS has had only nine editors. The first was Dr. Peter Sammartino during whose presidential administration the first issue made its appearance. Sammartino, who had edited the first publication of the Fraternity in 1925, a mimeographed sheet called "The Ticker," served as editor until 1933. He was succeeded by Dr. A. U. N. Camera, Eta, who served until his death in 1938. Its third editor, who had the longest stint, was Vincent Larcy, Theta Beta, who served as Editor-in-Chief until his retirement in 1956. Stan Raffa, Delta, followed through 1968, succeeded by Santo Barbarino, Beta Sigma, who ran The Kleos from 1968 until 1976. The sixth editor was Neil Anastasia, Theta Beta, who served from 1977 to 1983. He was succeeded by John Russo, Psi, who edited from 1984 until 1990. The eighth editor was Andrew Cripps serving from 1990 through 1996. Chris Pascocello served the shortest stint with just two issues before publishing duties returned to John Russo in 1998.

The magazine originally was intended as a quarterly but Fraternity economics and the depression of the thirties reduced it to a semi-annual. During the war years it was issued as a mimeographed edition. After the war it reverted to a semi-annual magazine publication. In 1957, its basic format was changed to a large four page slick newspaper edition with four issues per school year. The format was changed in 1977 to magazine size (8 1/2 by 11) and has been maintained ever since.

Above is the cover of an early Kleos from 1931 when it was a small (5 by 8 size) magazine format.

The Kleos has evolved over the years. The original issues were quite professional. Later issues became more cost effective and news oriented replacing feature type stories found in the 1930s publications. The late 1990s have brought desktop

Gamma Sigma

St. John's Staten Island

Hi, I'm Jeff Curiale from Gamma Sigma, and this is what we have done.

For community service, earlier this year we did over 400 hours of service, raised $400 and collected 400 pounds of clothing for hurricane victims in Puerto Rico.

On the night before Thanksgiving we did our annual sandwich blowout where we make turkey sandwiches. On Thanksgiving morning we donated them to a church on Staten Island. The Reverend at the church put Jeff Curiale and Anthony Bocchino's names in the Staten Island Advance along with Alpha Phi Delta's name thanking us for their support.

We inducted five new brothers. The Chi class was the biggest class inducted for Gamma Sigma since the Rho Class Kings class of fall 1995.

We had our annual Halloween party this year with over 500 people attending including brothers from Beta Eta, Beta Kappa and Gamma Kappa.

At the party we had our first annual Queen of Halloween contest in which brother Ed Shannon's girlfriend of DKD sorority won first prize for her little Red Riding Hood costume.

We played ZBT in the first ever national fraternities' annual football game on St. John's Staten Island campus. The game ended in a 1-1 tie with both teams leaving to watch the Yankees in the World Series.

We had a mixer with Lambda Chi sorority, in September, at Sal Licari's house. Brothers from Beta Eta and Gamma Kappa also attended.

In District news, one of our alumni, Manny Rodriguez, was elected Assistant District Governor this year. Every Saturday all seven chapters of the New York City district have a party in Brooklyn.

On December 5th, we held our 10th anniversary formal. We invited back all 115 alumni brothers and active brothers to participate.

Jeff Curiale was new student orientation advisor this year for the second year in a row. Ron Spalazzi, who graduated last semester, is now in the New York City police academy.

The executive board of President Jeff Curiale, VP Frank Canterino, Pledgemaster Ed Shannon, Treasurer Sal Licari, and Chaplain Ken Noonan call themselves the NEW REGIME and have put Gamma Sigma back on the map in the world of APD. We consider ourselves one of the strongest chapters in the fraternity.

Gamma Pi Ramapo College

My name is Alex Perico, and I'm the present Gamma Pi Chapter president. I would like to congratulate our chapter here at Ramapo College. I'm very proud to say that we took our organization to a much higher level this past year. As National could confirm, we worked very hard and got many accomplishments; we have been very active nationally, being present at all National conferences, paying our dues and internally being able to overcome large obstacles that were thought impossible to overcome. The brothers of Gamma Pi are tight and things are going really well. We are closing the fall semester with a new composite (fraternity group picture) and most importantly, money saved for the spring semester. I would also like to mention the good and hard work that our District Governor (R.J. Hartman) has performed and to attribute much of the success in our district to this extraordinary brother.

The Chapters

Wonder how your chapter is doing? Not all of our chapters are still active. Some are inactive, permanently or temporarily. Here's a list of active chapters (first number after the parentheses is their membership total

Beta Lambda House Destroyed By Fire

On Monday, December 28, 1998, the Beta Lambda chapter house of over thirty years in Loretto, Pa. was destroyed by an electrical fire, as reported by State Police Fire Marshals. The fire was reported at 11:46 PM. Due to drought-like conditions, and poor water pressure in the town of Loretto, where the chapter house is located, ten surrounding fire stations were needed to control the fire which was not distinguished until Tuesday morning at 8:00.

Fire marshals estimate over $100,000 worth of damage was done to the house which was totally demolished. Brother Michael Bohinick said, "I probably lost between $10,000 and $12,000 in personal belongings. Things like stereos, a VCR, golf clubs, books and clothing." Other chapter items include composites, furniture, an entertainment system and many personal belongings of Beta Lambda brothers. The chapter house was unoccupied at the time of the fire due to Christmas break.

In 1952, the National Housing Foundation purchased it's first property for the Beta Lambda chapter. The original house was sold due to costly expenses. On April 16, 1967, National dedicated a new house in Loretto to Beta Lambda. The dorm-like house was the first built by National.

In the 1980s, Alpha Phi Delta sold all properties. The Beta Lambda house was sold to the Beta Lambda Housing Board, comprised of several Beta Lambda alumni; and a loan was issued by the Alpha Phi Delta Foundation to the Housing Board. The house is still owned by the Beta Lambda Housing Board with Alpha Phi Delta Foundation owning a portion of the total note. It is too early to tell how much the insurance company will pay

Governor John Peter Curielli has introduced a new program into the I-I District of Kiwanis called "Reading is a Priority." This program is designed to help economically disadvantaged children develop reading skills and vocabularies prior to entering grade school. It has been found that economically disadvantaged children come to grade school knowing 3,000 words as opposed to the non-economically disadvantaged child, who comes to grade school knowing 8-10,000 words. At a district level, the Kiwanis organization has a foundation known as the Spastic Paralysis Foundation which was founded in 1952, and since that date has supported researchers in the development of procedures and tools to help children born with Spina Bifida. At an international level, Kiwanis has committed to raise $75,000,000 by the year 2000, in order to rid the world of the greatest cause of mental retardation in children, namely the lack of iodine in their diets. Kiwanis has already raised $36,000,000 for this project.

John Peter has been a Kiwanian for almost 25 years and devotes much of his free time to community service primarily in the area of Kiwanis and Shriners Crippled Children's Hospital. Panella Plays Santa for Charity

Leon J. Panella, Psi '62, loves the Christmas season because it allows him to dress up as Santa Claus. Joined by his wife Karen, who dresses as Mrs. Claus, Leon attends many events in his costume during the holiday season.

For the past six years, Leon has been Santa (shown in the picture) for The McGuire Memorial Home Foundation. Located in New Brighton, Pa., McGuire Home is a residential care facility for severely mentally and physically challenged children and young adults and currently is home to 90 young people. It was founded in 1963 by Bishop John Wright of the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh and is managed by the Felician Sisters.

Leon semi-retired as an independent pharmacist several years ago and uses some of his time to benefit others. He is also donating time to the Alpha Phi Delta Foundation after being elected as a new trustee in 1998. As the leading vote-getter in the national election, Leon was also elected its chairman. One of his projects is to stimulate the use of the Alpha Phi Delta credit card. He urges brothers to apply for and use their APD Credit Card which benefits the APD Foundation. (Brothers can apply by telephone by calling 1-800-787-8711 extension 0946.)

Leon is also an active member of the Pittsburgh Alumni Club and still works occasionally in pharmacy. He also finds time for his family and other hobbies - drag racing and traveling. His motto is "Remember our heritage," and he also told The Kleos that "the beard is real."
